Crusading Preacher Thwarted

The Rev. Braxton B. Sawyer, crusading anti-nudist preacher from Fort Smith, Ark., sprawls on ground after tripping while being evicted from convention of American Sunshine Bathing Association at Battle Creek, Mich., Aug. 4. His attempts to take movies on convention grounds were thwarted by guards. Nudists evicted Dr. Sawyer when he refused to abide with disrobing rules. (AP Wirephoto)

Rampaging Preacher Gives Nudists Lots of Publicity

Has Trouble Getting Into Camp Because He Refused to Disrobe

Battle Creek, Mich., Aug. 5 (AP)—A crusading preacher, rebuffed in his initial effort to visit Sunshine Gardens yesterday, vowed to return today and resume his fight against "the national threat of nudism."

Dr. Braxton Sawyer, of Fort Smith, Ark., went to the Battle Creek Area Sunbathing Club armed with an invitation to attend the American Sunbathing Association convention. He also carried a movie camera.

He was asked to remove his clothes before entering the camp—a requirement for all visitors.

"Never," stormed Dr. Sawyer, who says he's a Baptist minister.

The closest Sawyer got to the bare facts yesterday were 20 barechested nudists who stopped him at the gate and scuffled with him.

After charging into a male nudist, who like the minister was big, Dr. Sawyer picked himself from the dust and said: "Somebody stomped on me."

Challenges Them to Fight

He then prowled back and forth in front of the gateway and challenged the nudists to a fight:

"There comes a time when Samson has to take the jawbone of an ass and whip a pack of fools," thundered the preacher.

Dr. Sawyer was told by Elmer J. Adams, garden proprietor, that his invitation stood, but that taking off his clothes was part of the rules and everybody follows the rules.

Dr. Sawyer said they'd better call the police if they intended to keep him out. They did. Township police and deputies arrived.

"Go on . . . evict me," said Dr. Sawyer furiously while he ground away at everything in sight with his movie camera. "I have come a thousand miles for this affair and nobody is going to make a fool of me," he cried.

Used 24 Stations

Dr. Sawyer said he has been broadcasting since Monday over 24 stations in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kentucky and Missouri. He said he is attempting to help pass anti-nudism bills in the states. His broadcasts were heard in the colony's clubhouse.

Dr. Sawyer missed showgirl Evelyn West's keynote address to the association convention. Miss West, who gained publicity in 1946 when she insured her chest with Lloyds of London for $50,000, gave the address

Red China Refuses To Accept Protest

British Diplomat Meets Communist Contempt of U. S. Stand

London, Aug. 5 (AP)—Red China has refused even to accept a second American protest against the shooting down of a British airliner off Hainan last month, diplomatic officials said today. Three Americans were among 10 persons killed in the attack.

The U. S. State Department disclosed July 29 that the Peiping regime had contemptuously turned down American protests on both that incident and a subsequent fighter attack on two American rescue planes in which the attackers were shot down.

Protests Relayed

The protests were relayed by British Charge D'Affairs Humphrey Trevelyn. The Chinese wouldn't accept them from his hand.

Informants here said Trevelyn had sought anew to deliver Washington's protest, but the Communists refused for the second time even to consider it.

The United States does not recognize Red China and has no diplomatic dealings with the Peiping government.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles said yesterday the Chinese had put themselves in the wrong by refusing the protests. He announced at the same time that another strong protest had been sent off to Peiping through the British.

Palenville Man, 41, Is Stricken While Playing Tennis

William S. Holmes, 41, of Palenville, brother of Mayor George P. Holmes, of Saugerties, who was stricken suddenly ill at Forsyth Park early last night was pronounced dead on arrival at Kingston Hospital.

Holmes, who had been an outstanding athelete, was engaged in a doubles tennis match at the park with his son, Bruce.

Born in Catskill, he had attended school there, and he played basketball at Catskill High School. A cross-country runner, he had participated in state meets, and in tennis he had been Ulster county singles champion three times. He was an employe of the Alpha Cement Co., Cementon, a member of the Palenville Fire Department, a deacon of the Kiskatom Reformed Church, and an assistant scoutmaster.

Notifies Headquarters

Deputy Fire Chief Harold Sanford notified police headquarters at 6:16 p. m., yesterday that someone had called, apparently to report an emergency at the park, but said "never mind," and hung up.

Officers Harold DeGraff and William Snyder investigated and reported that Holmes had apparently "suffered a heart attack while playing tennis in the park." He was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Besides his son, Bruce, his wife, Bessie Dorsey Holmes, a daughter, Bonnie, two brothers, George P. of Saugerties, and Peter C., of Albany, and a sister, Mrs. Effie Wooley of Albany, survive.

The funeral service will be held Saturday at 2 p. m., at the Kiskatom Reformed Church. Burial will be in Mountain View Cemetery, Saugerties. Friends may call any time at the Hartley & Lamouree Funeral Home, 2 Second street, Saugerties.

Soviet Bid Seen Aimed At Division

Move Regarded in U.S. to Destroy American Leadership, Wreck Free Defenses

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—Russia's new proposal for a big four foreign ministers meeting is officially regarded here as part of a persistent drive to wreck western anticommunist defenses and to destroy eventually American leadership of the free world.

Officials said today Britain and France stand firmly with the United States in opposition to this Kremlin campaign. They forecast that the Russian proposal for new talks on European security will be turned down by joint decision. Three-power talks on a reply are now getting under way in London.

Other Moves Due

However, further Soviet moves are expected. The belief here is that the Russians may try to devise proposals of increasing attractiveness to western Europe. Their immediate major aim is to block West German rearmament.

Their proposal for an over-all European security system has been put forth as an alternative to the western-sponsored European Defense Community (EDC) proposing to rearm Western Germany as part of a six-nation army. EDC is due to come up for action soon in the French Assembly.

Russia's over-all campaign aimed at destroying U. S. leadership and isolating the United States is being developed along two main lines.

One is directed toward convincing non-Communist nations all over the world that the Communist bloc wants only peace. The agreement of the Reds to end the war in Indochina fits into that line, as does their European plan.

The other line is directed toward convincing the free nations that the United States is not peaceful but is committed to starting a new war.

President Cites Need

President Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday the Soviets are "spending literally billions in different kinds of propaganda" and using subversion and bribery to drive this contention of theirs toward acceptance by millions. The President declared the United States must "be more imaginative in finding ways to combat" the Soviet campaign.

The latest Soviet maneuver was made yesterday when Russian ambassadors in Paris, London and Washington delivered notes proposing the foreign ministers of the Big Four powers should meet in August or September to discuss the calling of a big all-European conference on European security and on some German problems.

Secretary of State Dulles told a news conference two weeks ago he could see no profitable results to be gained by holding further meetings unless Russia

Serious Drouth Menacing Great Plains Farmers

Only More Heavy Rains May Help Parched Areas; Federal Aid Needed

By ROBERT H. JOHNSON, JR.
Associated Press Staff

Farmers and ranchers are glum and dispirited in the vast drouth country where corn and cotton droop and cattle graze on brown pastures.

"Unless we assist in every possible way," says Agriculture Commissioner John White of Texas, "thousands of our rural people will have to abandon the land."

White speaks for only one state, but drouth still rules all the great plains, in spite of recent rains and federal aid already granted to six states.

Good rains in sunburned sections of the south and east have been more helpful—but not enough to save most crops.

Here is what men who live on the seared land throughout the disaster areas say:

Only a lot more rain, and then still more, can finally beat the drouth and save them—and when that happy day will arrive is an impossible guess. Meanwhile, they need federal help to hang on—and, they grumble, they aren't getting enough.

'Dole' Not Expected

"I don't think they're expecting a 'dole,'" White said. "For the sake of our economic future, we have to help the little farmer and rancher stay on the farm. We can't help them if they are forced to drift into the cities to seek employment."

The number of states eligible for federal aid reached six this week when Oklahoma and Missouri were added to Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico and Texas.

Six more states — Alabama, Arkansas, Kansas, Kentucky, Georgia and Tennessee — have asked to be included.

Still, as of today, the situation appears slightly better than it was 10 days ago, when nothing but heat soaked the country from Georgia to Wyoming and Canada to Mexico.

Since then, spotted rains have raised dabs of green in some of

Says Russia May Have 90 Undersea Craft in Pacific

Vice Admiral Feels Subs and Air Power Best Soviet Threats in Far East

Tokyo, Aug. 5 (AP)—The Russian navy may have as many as 90 submarines in the Pacific area, Vice Adm. William Callaghan, commander of U. S. naval forces in the Far East, estimated today.

"These submarines definitely would be a threat to maintaining sea lines of communication," said the tall, grey-haired admiral, whose job would be to fight them in the event of war with the Soviets.

"Russia has a total of 375 submarines," Callaghan said in an interview, "and we feel it would be reasonable to expect that one-quarter of them are in the Pacific."

DDs Cruisers in Area

He estimated the Russian Pacific fleet also has 50 destroyers and two cruisers, but no aircraft carriers or battleships.

"Submarines and air power are their greatest threat, so far as Soviet capability is concerned," Callaghan said.

Two weeks ago, Gen. Earle E. Partridge, Far East Air Forces commander, said combined Soviet, Chinese and North Korean air forces had 7,500 planes, most of them Russian.

Russian ground strength in the Far East has been estimated at 35 combat divisions by a high-ranking officer on the staff of Gen. John E. Hull, Far East commander.

Callaghan's present command includes the U. S. 7th Fleet, made up of destroyer, cruiser and aircraft carriers, but presently no battleships. The 7th Feet is charged with preventing a Chinese Red invasion of Formosa, Chinese Nationalist redoubt.

Sees Little Chances

Asked about the chances the Russians would have in getting aircraft carriers into the Pacific in case of war, Callaghan smiled. "I would certainly hate to be in command of a Russian naval force trying to come around the Cape of Good Hope," he said.

There were no surface actions in the Korean war. United Nations warships roamed the coasts at will, hammering shore batteries and sending carrier based

Superstructure Is to Cost About 9½ Million

A contract for building the superstructure of the Kingston-Rhinebeck bridge was awarded yesterday to the Harris Structural Steel Co., of New York, which bid low at $9,496,431.80 July 26.

The New York State Bridge Authority announced the award after a meeting at its Ferry street office here at 2:30 p. m., yesterday.

Work on the superstructure is not expected to start for about a year, but a member of the authority explained that an early award is essential to permit the contractor to place orders for milling the steel.

An estimated 15,000 tons of structural steel will be required for the 7,800-foot span, which will have a roadway 26 feet wide. It is scheduled to be opened to traffic in October, 1956.

Preliminary Underway

Preliminary work for the piers and other substructure is now underway by the Merritt-Chapman & Scott Corp., of New York. That contract was awarded last June 10. Work on the approaches on both sides of the river is also nearing completion.

D. B. Steinman, consulting engineer of New York, designed the bridge and will supervise construction. The overall construction cost is expected to be about $18,000,000.

Other bidders for the superstructure contract were the Bethlehem Steel Co., at $9,630,112.60, and American Bridge Co., at $9,687,723.90.

Call to Freeman Reveals Attempt At Self-Poisoning

Fred Eggermann, 53, of Port Ewen, was reported in "good" condition at the Benedictine Hospital late this morning after he had apparently swallowed a quantity of poisonous substance, according to a sheriff's office report.

Eggermann telephoned The Freeman shortly after 7:30 today and announced his plans to commit suicide by taking poison. The call was taken by Richard O. Gruver, city editor, who immediately notified the sheriff's office.

"I took poison ten minutes ago," he told Gruver, "and I'll be dead in 15 minutes more." Gruver kept Eggermann talking

Ready to Leave

Susan Hayes, reported sweetheart of Dr. Samuel Sheppard, who is under arrest in connection with the slaying of his wife, relaxes on the grass at Cleveland. She said, "I'm ready to go back to California and take up my old job just as soon as I can."

Woman Declares She Had 'Hugging, Kissing' Dates

High Police Official Says Five Escapades Are Known in Life of Sheppard

Cleveland, Aug. 5 (AP)—Police reported today they have a signed statement from a married woman admitting she had recent "hugging and kissing" dates with Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard.

The woman was described as a former patient of the 30-year-old osteopath who is charged with first degree murder in the slaying of his wife, Marilyn, 31.

The information was disclosed by a high police official. He also said investigators now have established five amorous escapades in the life of Dr. Sheppard.

The only woman identified so far is Miss Susan Hayes, 24-year-old hospital technician, who returned here voluntarily from Los Angeles to tell of intimacies with the defendant.

Slapped His Wife

In the latest case, the officer who refused to be identified by name said, the husband of the woman signed a statement saying he slapped his wife because she took a walk in the woods with Dr. Sheppard.

The woman said she had "three or four dates" with the handsome osteopath and they "hugged and kissed nothing more."

On one occasion, the woman said in her statement, they took a two-hour automobile ride and parked in Metropolitan Park. She admitted being the more aggressive of the two.

Dr. Sheppard previously had been questioned about the woman police said, and denied their relationship was anything other

Veep Gives Out Names Of Board

3 Republicans, Same Number Democrats Appointed by Party Leaders

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—Vice President Nixon today appointed a six-member Senate committee to make an investigation of the conduct of Sen. McCarthy (R.-Wis.) and consider proposals that he be censured.

The members:

Sen. Arthur V. Watkins (R.-Utah).

Sen. Frank Carlson (R.-Kas.).

Sen. Francis Case (R.-S.D.).

Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D.-Colo.).

Sen. John C. Stennis (D.-Miss.).

Sen. Sam J. Ervin (D.-N.C.).

While Nixon announced the appointees, the actual selections were made by party leaders.

The Senate Democratic Policy Committee had an early morning meeting to decide finally on the Democratic members.

Quickly after the appointment of the committee, McCarthy arose and asked who would be the committee's chairman. Nixon replied that "the committee will select its own chairman."

McCarthy asked for a meeting this afternoon with the committee.

McCarthy said he wished, among other things, to get an understanding with the group which would avoid any conflict between its possible requirements on his time and his own plans for conducting hearings before his Senate Investigations subcommittee.

Knowland said selection of committe members was "no problem," but was apparent that he and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, had some difficulties attempting to persuade veteran senators to serve.

Johnson, who huddled last night with other party leaders, declined to comment in advance on the Democratic choices. The floor leaders would nominate committee members for appointment by Nixon.

Last hour efforts were reported being made to get Sens. Millikin (R-Colo.) and George (D-Ga.) to accept committee posts, but George had rejected the idea earlier and Milliken was extremely reluctant because of his health.

The job of culling out some of the 46 overlapping charges leveled at McCarthy by Sens. Flanders (R.-Vt.), Morse, (Ind.-Ore.) and Fulbright (D.-Ark.) and investigating the others thus might be assigned to some of the Senate's newer members.

Ought to Go On

Some senators were suggesting that if Knowland and Johnson couldn't get the men they wanted, the two leaders themselves ought to go on the committee since they were instrumental in getting the censure controversy assigned to the group, rather than brought to a quick floor vote.

McCarthy declined to comment on President Eisenhower's news conference statement yesterday that the President can't escape responsibility for what goes on within his party.

Eisenhower said the kind of thing now going on in the Senate—meaning the McCarthy controversy—is going to affect the party but he couldn't tell just how. He said it was the Senate's business, but nevertheless he must take such measures as are available to him to try to avoid and ameliorate party-splitting rows.

Mund said the new investigation of McCarthy "ought to simplify the task" of writing the McCarthy-Army hearings verdict.

He said it would result in less pressure from members for possibly controversial findings on what he termed "side issues"

South Nyack Asks Ruling On River-Deposited Land

South Nyack, Aug. 5 (AP)—This village has asked the secretary of state to rule whether new land deposited along the bank of the Hudson river during the past 70 years belongs to South Nyack.

The Hudson has been depositing silt along the Nyack and South Nyack waterfront for as long as the oldest riverman can remember. Village Trustee George Thies said the high-water mark has been creeping outward from a few inches to four feet a year.

In the 70 years since South Nyack was incorporated, an added strip of land up to 187 feet wide has been created for a length of more than a mile.

The question of jurisdiction was brought up a few days ago by Mrs. Frank Owen, wife of a plumber, whose deed shows her lot to have been only 134 feet deep from Piermont avenue to the river.

Recent measurements show her plot now as 321 feet deep. So Mrs. Owens asked Village Clerk Hillard Ross to confirm the village's jurisdiction over the new land. Ross applied to Thomas J. Curran, New York secretary of state, for a ruling.

A decision from the secretary of state would clarify the rights of the village and Mrs. Owen in her land, and also in new property similarly created for a score or more of private home owners, boat yards and small shops within a mile of the river front.

Two Held for Homicide in Boy's Death; Child Is Beaten, Starved; 'Most Brutal'

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—A magistrate said today he would like to horsewhip a crippled, unwed mother and a hoodlum accused with her of beating her 2½-year-old son to death.

The mother, Margaret Mahoney, 29 years old and only four feet eight inches tall, hung her head and sobbed briefly at the words of Magistrate Hyman Bushel. Her companion, Alfred Bates, 23, showed no emotion.

Both are charged with homicide. Bushel held them without bail for another hearing Aug. 13.

Bushel said the case probably would go to a grand jury "but I know what I'd do."

"I wouldn't indict you," he said. "I'd horsewhip you so badly you wouldn't be able to get a trial if half of what I read in the papers is true."

The body of the boy was found yesterday in a closet of an apartment Miss Mahoney and Bates have been sharing.

Brutality Is Told

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—The 29-year-old wayward daughter of a well-to-do family and her common-law husband have been charged with homicide in the death of her 2½-year-old son, savagely beaten and apparently half-starved.

The mother, Margaret Mahony is the daughter of Thomas Mahony, a Scarsdale contractor. The youngest of six children, she suffered a hip injury at birth that left her lame. Her mother described her as a "problem child" who left home 2½ years ago.

The body of the boy, Joseph, was found yesterday in a Manhattan hotel apartment where the couple were living on relief.

Police said the four-foot, eight-inch-tall mother told them: "He wasn't behaving himself. I decided to teach him a lesson."

She said she beat the boy with a leather belt, put him nude in a closet, and went out to telephone the welfare department concerning another relief check, police reported.

After taking a look at Joseph's body, a veteran policeman said, "It's the most brutal thing I've

'Top Priority' Given Project To By-Pass Liberty Village

Albany, Aug. 5 (AP) — Gov. Dewey today stamped "top priority" on plans to build a four-lane highway bypassing the village of Liberty, where a runaway tank truck killed three persons July 24.

In a statement the governor said he had asked the Public Works Department to be ready to begin construction "early in 1955" on a new road to carry state Route 17 around the Sullivan county village.

Route 17, a heavily travelled east-west artery, now runs down Liberty's main street. Last month a tank truck out of control roared the mile and a half down White Bridge hill, west of the village, and smashed into several automobiles. Three persons were killed and 14 were injured.

On Monday the State Traffic Commission ordered erection of a series of "trucks use lower gear" signs along the hill. It is also considering establishment of a 20-mile-an-hour speed limit on the grade.

Dewey said plans for the 6½-mile bypass were 85 per cent complete and would be finished this year. Construction is expected to take two years from the starting date.

The governor added that "immense progress" had been made toward relieving congestion and reducing traffic hazards along Route 17, "especially in the

Frozen Fruits

Using some of those summer fruits you put into your freezer? If they are to go into fruit cups they need be defrosted only a short time before serving so they will still be icy cold. If frozen berries are allowed to stand after they are thawed, they tend to become flabby; other fruits tend to lose their shape and juice.

Summer Squash

To pan summer squash, heat a small amount of butter or margarine in a large skillet. Add the squash cut into thin crosswise slices; cover and cook until tender and lightly browned on one side. Turn the vegetable pieces and brown lightly on the other side. Watch so as not to scorch. Season with salt and pepper and serve at once.

Real Estate Not Moving

Detroit (AP)—Four square feet of Florida couldn't get out of Canada. The soil, part of a beach scene, was held by U. S. Customs agents as John R. Reeves of Sarasota, Fla., attempted to bring it to Michigan from Windsor, Ont., across the Detroit river. Reeves said he was bringing the soil, complete with palm trees, to Michigan's Gov. G. Mennen Williams "in appreciation of the kind tourists from Michigan." Customs officers said they had to let the plant quarantine division look the palms over for disease, bugs and such. "What are you doing coming from Canada?" asked an official. "Oh, I just decided to take the long way around," said Reeves.

Zoning, Parking Reports Given

Saugerties, Aug. 4 — At a meeting of the village trustees, Monday night, the cost of zoning the community was estimated at $2,500, and a plan was presented to cut down parking meter summons.

Daniel Lamb, chairman of the special committee to study zoning said the cost would run about $2,500 and added "there is every indication the project may cost less."

Tom Reynolds, representing the Chamber of Commerce, said the chamber offered to create a fund to supply nickles to policemen to feed overtime parking meters, instead of writing out parking tickets.

Decision was to let Reynolds contact other communities, reportedly using the method, then furnish data to the mayor so he can check on legality with the New York State Board of Audit and Control.

A 10-year-old bond issue was favored for financing the water main project on Lighthouse Drive, Louis P. Francello, village attorney, was authorized to proceed with drawing the necessary resolution.

The Chamber of Commerce, requesting financial assistance in publicizing Saugerties resort and other business, was advised to present a definite program, showing costs, at budget time next year for consideration at that time.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

"I used to worry because our office seemed so far behind with its records, correspondence and all the rest of what we call "UB", (for Unfinished Business) said a business man the other day. "When I bought that ailing business all that sort of thing was in rather a bad way. But we've kept on plugging and doing today's work today and digging into that of the year before last, until we've gained a whole year on the mess and we begin to feel pretty good.

"Now I read that the Library of the British Museum, one of the largest and most important businesses in the world, is 28 years behind in its cataloguing department. Cheer up, British Museum! You know your English motto: 'It's dogged as does it!' If we can do it, you can.

"But I'm willing to bet a nickel—or a whole shilling, if need be, that a year from today my business will be all caught up—because we've now acquired the habit of doing a bit more every day than the day calls for, and getting out on time, too, while the good old Museum Library will be 30 years behind instead of only 28. Maybe it needs some peppy young Americans with library training to get on its job. Maybe the British cannot afford them? Oh, well, some days no one can win; some days not even the British Museum can lay up a nickel."

A man is growing old when he does not recognize the excuse his son gives him for staying out late as the same one he used on his own father.

YOUR INSTITUTIONS

A prominent lawyer recently commented on the difficulty of getting witnesses to appear in court. He said that people seem to have a terror of courts, and anticipate trouble from them even when they are guilty of no crime but are only asked to testify to some fact of which they have knowledge. The lawyer added that he always reminds such witnesses that the courts are theirs, paid for by their taxes and directly or indirectly administered by their representatives.

This attitude of detachment from public institutions is not confined to courts. There are people who live in communities for years and never enter the municipal buildings, take no interest in the schools, regard the public library as a building for other people to use, look upon police as people to avoid.

All the institutions that make up a democracy belong to all the people. Their strength depends upon their being used, trusted and upheld by all the people.

When marveling at the grace of a jet airplane as it swishes through the blue above, piercing the clouds as it arches to the heavens, give a thought to the knowledge and energies that man has given it, as well as the material it carries. A single jet bomber, for example, uses enough pipe and tubing to equip the heating and water system of five six-room houses.

A summer hint for easy, economical care of the lawn: move next-door to a fellow with a power mower.

CLEAN-UP CAMPAIGNS

It is amazing and heartening to see how much can be accomplished by the clean-up, paint-up, fix-up campaigns carried on in some communities.

Neighbors make a concerted effort to put their property in shape, to mend that old fence that has been leaning for so long, to paint it and garages that have needed paint for a long time. People pitch in to cut the grass and straighten out that vacant lot that has been an eyesore. Before long neighbors who have neglected their properties get in line and make improvements.

Community pride is a contagious thing. A clean, attractive neighborhood is a better place to raise children. If often only takes a few citizens with initiative to get the ball rolling.

DUE PROCESS

Those who complain about Senator McCarthy's improprieties might raise the question of due process.

1. A Committee of the Senate finds itself involved in accusations of unbecoming conduct on the part of its Chairman and members of its staff. Direct complaints are made against the Chairman, the Chief Counsel, and the administrative officer of the Committee by a special counsel engaged by the Department of the Army after a conference had been held in the office of the Attorney General of the United States which was attended by important members of the Executive branch of the government;

2. The three who were accused of impropriety made an answer;

3. The Committee decided to conduct an investigation into its affairs, chose Senator Karl Mundt to preside and Ray Jenkins of Knoxville, Tennessee, as special counsel;

4. A hearing was held which took testimony for 36 days in public, in the presence of press, radio, television and a large audience. In addition, a number of witnesses were heard in Executive Session. Millions of words of testimony were taken all of which were duly recorded, and except those taken in Executive Session, they have been printed;

5. It was stated that the Counsel for the Committee would digest the testimony and make a report to the Committee which is empowered to act upon it. The Committee, under the Chairmanship of Karl Mundt, would then file its report with the Committee on Government Operations which would make a decision from which an appeal could be taken to the Senate for action.

This procedure, which is orderly and conforms, as much as possible, to the traditions and rights of the Senate and all parties concerned, was violated during the last hour of the McCarthy-Stevens hearing by Senator Charles Potter whose report was issued to the press before it was filed with the Committee of which he is a member and before the last word of testimony was in. Senator Potter's impropriety may have many explanations. The only realistic explanation can be that he did it because he wanted to do it and that it satisfied those who had anticipated that the hearings would disclose gross improprieties on the part of Senator McCarthy and Roy Cohn which, if they took place, were not brought out in evidence.

At any rate, Senator Potter's obligation to his colleagues was to file his statement at the Hearing and not to issue it as a press release while the Hearing was still in session. For this insult to his colleagues, Senator Potter was not reprimanded because it is really impossible to reprimand a Senator who is a sovereign in his own right.

Senator Potter also placed himself in the position of voting with the Democrats against his Republican colleagues, which was duly acknowledged by Senator McClellan who shouted, "Welcome Democrat!" Senator Potter is not running for re-election this year; were he running for re-election this year, it is doubtful if he would have acted in this manner.

Into this situation entered the aged and years-weary Senator Ralph Flanders of Vermont who also did not wait for the report of the Committee but who projected himself as a private judge, made deliberately untruthful statements concerning Roy Cohn, maligning his private morals. He also proposed a Senatorial reprimand for Senator McCarthy. One of his charges is that the McCarthy Committee has been investigating and keeping files on certain Senators. I do not know how true that is of the McCarthy Committee but there are files concerning the relations between some United Senators and Communists.

Even I, a humble reporter, to use the favorite word of Mr. Welch of Boston, have some data about some Senators I do not use because I do not engage in gossip. Some day some Committee will perhaps haplessly bring such data forward and they might stumble on the efforts to keep Michael Greenberg on the government payroll, and also they might glance at the continuing friendships of Alger and Priscilla Hiss who have more defenders than speak out in public.

Senator Flanders did not wait for the Jenkins report, or for majority and minority reports of the Mundt Committee but went off entirely on his own against the wishes of many of his colleagues who felt that he was out of order. There was no due process in Senator Flander's conduct.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

MIGRAINE HEADACHE

Migraine headache, the intense throbbing or pounding headache, usually appearing on one side of the head only, and aggravated by stooping, shaking the head, or jarring the body, may occur at any age, from as early as 6 to past 60. It is twice as frequent in females as in males. Persons with migraine are said to be intelligent, shy, sensitive, ambitious, conscientious, and perfectionistic.

Symptoms which may be associated with it are loss of appetite, nausea, vomiting and diarrhoea, dizziness, excessive perspiration, fever, palpitation and frequent passing of urine. "The patient usually prefers to lie down in a quiet, darkened place. There may be flushing or pallor of the face, reddening of the eyelids, and a stuffy nose."

Some of the ways in which migraine may be recognized are:

(1) It usually comes again and again at almost regular intervals.

(2) It has a tendency to occur in families.

(3) There is often gastrointestinal disturbance.

(4) It usually occurs on the one side only although sometimes on both, or from one side to the other.

(5) It usually responds very well to ergotamine products.

Sometimes the attack may be prevented from developing by the use of a drug such as nicotinic acid in doses 100 to 200 mg. which widens the blood vessels. General measures such as hot or cold compresses and sleep sometimes give relief.

When the attack has become more than mild, drugs such as Cafergot (100 mg. of caffeine alkloid to 1 mg. of ergotamine tartrate) in doses of 1 to 2 tablets every half hour for 2 or 3 doses ordinarily controls moderate migraine.

For patients with severe attacks, dihydroergotamine injected into a vein is effective. Recently ergo-caffeine suppositories put into the rectum have been found satisfactory and possess the advantage of being able to be used by the patient early in the attack and also when nausea and vomiting prevent drugs being taken by mouth. Of course, all these drugs must be prescribed by a physician who knows your case as they should not be used when conditions such as high blood pressure, heart disease, pregnancy are present.

The patient must learn the special value to him of rest, relxation and the avoidance of tension and anxiety.

Edson's Washington News Notebook

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington (NEA)—The record of Congress in international affairs has been a notably uninspiring and negative thing this year. Summing it up, it seems that foreign policy has now become more of an issue for open debate in congressional chambers, instead of something that was first threshed out thoroughly in the Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate and the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House.

Time was when those two committees held the real statesmen of Congress. In the days of Borah, in the days of Vandenberg—even in the days when Tom Connally ran the show in the Senate and Sol Bloom ran it in the House — a record of achievement could be written at the end of any session of Congress. But not so now.

Sen. Alexander Wiley of Wisconsin has little to show for his two years as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Rep. Robert Chiperfield of Illinois has hardly made a mark as chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and is little known.

Both got their chairmanships through seniority. But other members have made the reputations.

Among the Republicans, Smith of New Jersey and Knowland of California in the Senate; Vorys of Ohio, Judd of Minnesota, Fulton of Pennsylvania and Javits of New York in the House.

Among the Democrats, Fulbright of Arkansas, Sparkman of Alabama and Mansfield of Montana in the Senate; Richards of South Carolina, Battle of Alabama and Hayes of Arkansas in the House. But even their leadership has not counted for enough.

Most of the committee time this year has been spent on the foreign aid bill. This is a subject that has been through the congressional mill for six years.

The problems have been much the same all this time. Yet months have been taken over details in this year's hearings, as though they presented entirely new matters.

Diversionary foreign-policy debate on the floor of the Senate has been the main time-killer, however. Last year, weeks were spent on the proposed resolution to repudiate the agreements made at Yalta and Potsdam. In the end, the whole matter was dropped and it was not revived this year. It was the Bricker amendment to redefine the President's powers in making international agreements which murdered time this year. Again the subject was dropped with nothing accomplished.

Other subjects which have concerned the whole Congress more than the international affairs committees have been the debate on Indo-China, the ban against admission of Red China to the United Nations, the prohibition against a Locarno trye treaty, the ratification of the European Defense Community treaty and the fruitless efforts to prohibit American aid to countries that did not ratify EDC.

The liaison between the State Department and the Congress on international affairs has probably been as good or even better than it has been in recent years.

Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has been to Capitol Hill countless times to discuss Administration policies. Just as often congressional leaders have been called to the State Department for special briefings. In spite of this, the Eisenhower-Dulles foreign policy is looked on with more congressional suspicion than approval.

The Administration's international trade policy package, while primarily the responsibility of other committees, was sidetracked with a simple one-year extension of the present reciprocal trade agreements program. Customs simplification and amendment of the Buy American act got nowhere.

The Senate has ratified several treaties. They include the Korean security pact, the international sugar agreement, and the universay copyright convention. Implementing legislation for this last is still hung up in Senate Judiciary committee.

The international telecommunications convention has been hung up before the Senate Foreign Relations committee since last year.

Three agreements to eliminate double taxation for Americans doing business with Britain, Belgium and Japan have not been acted on. It is now too late for anything to be done. But these delays hurt foreign investment, which the Administration is trying to support.

Hearings have been begun only recently on a protocol to regulate opium traffic. Another protocol to amend the anti-slavery convention has received no action. Such things are apparently not considered important.

Adding up the whole performance, it makes a sorry record.

Old Granny Kempoch, a curiously shaped monolith, 6 feet tall in Gourock, Scotland, was always regarded with superstitious fear by sailors. Today in Washington

McCarthy Issue Is Basically Whether Constitutional Point Is to Be Threatened

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Aug. 5—An unprecedented challenge to constitutionalism—and one that can curtail the right of a member of Congress hereafter to express freely and without fear of intimidation his views on public questions—has been projected by the vote of the Senate to create a special committee of six to consider certain charges made by other senators against Senator McCarthy.

The issue is not whether what the Wisconsin senator has said in his speeches about General Marshall or anyone else was or was not meritorious, but whether the Senate is about to try a United States senator for conduct which it has never heretofore prescribed as a violation of its rules.

The Supreme Court of the United States has set aside as unconstitutional many a law passed by Congress because it did not specify "standards" for the application of the law in question.

What are the "standards" by which the new Senate committee is to judge the conduct of the Wisconsin senator, and can a rule be applied now which refers to acts allegedly committed before the rule was ever adopted?

If it be "ethics" that now are to be defined, there is the charge that Senator McCarthy received a fee for the preparation of a book on Housing of Veterans, published by a housing company. Senator Fulbright says the fee was not paid for "comparable services." Then what shall be said of those senators who — as Senator Knowland pointed out in the debate—have received fees for public speaking in excess of those normally paid? Also, what of the fact that labor unions, trade associations and corporations having business with the Congress paid out such huge fees to members of Congress?

If it be "unethical" for a senator to accept a fee for writing a book derived from information received from his own committee or from executive agencies of the government, what shall be said of the "ethics" of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt who, while he was in the White House, had published for private profit and put a personal copyright on information that belonged to the government of the United States? Thus, the transcripts of press conferences from 1933 to 1940—which the newspapermen of America were forbidden to quote in the first person—were published for gain, and the copyright which Mr. Roosevelt held has prevented the press from reprinting all those transcripts as a matter of right and it can be done today only with the permission of the book publisher.

Mr. Roosevelt, in the foreword, extended thanks "to the members of the cabinet and heads of other agencies and others who have assisted in the gathering of this material in the various departments of the government and in the executive offices in the White House."

Is that a "standard" for a senator, too? And should any member of Congress receive outside income—from private law practice, for example—while he is in office? There is no rule on this either.

Shall members of Congress accept compensation for articles they write for publication in newspapers or periodicals while, as always, there is under consideration legislation to increase second-class postal rates?

Shall members of Congress vote on any measure affecting any constituent who has contributed substantial sums to his campaign fund? Should he disclose his own investments and disqualify himself from voting on any issue directly or indirectly affecting his personal property?

As for making "classified information" public, what is the rule or standard? Is it a matter for "censure" when one senator makes it public and no violation when another does? Not long ago a western senator on television told facts about the hydrogen bomb which were supposed to be top secret. Should he have been "censured" for that? If so, where is the rule which says that a member of the coordinate branch of the government is not authorized to use any information which he deems in the public interest?

Again, it has been charged that the Wisconsin senator urged federal employes "to violate their oaths and the law" by encouraging them to give him information which, it has been argued, they should not transmit. Conceding that a federal employe should be fired for doing it—and maybe if he suspects corruption or treason, he may feel justified in risking his job for the public welfare—is there any rule of conduct by either House of Congress which says the members cannot use in hearings information of any kind which they receive? If so, it hasn't been written yet anywhere in the rules.

The case is parallel to the action of the late President Roosevelt when he wrote a letter to a committee chairman in the House and urged that the Guffey Coal Act be passed irrespective of any doubts which members might have as to the constitutionality of that bill. Was this asking members of Congress to violate the oaths in which they promised "to support the Constitution," and, if not, is it any different conduct from that which is charged against the Wisconsin senator?

One of the charges now has blown up in the faces of the accusers—the army has just suspended for the second time Annie Lee Moss, whom Senator McCarthy charged was a Communist, and this time it is stated some new information has been uncovered by the FBI. Supposing the resolution of "censure" for his having made the charge in the Moss case had passed the Senate when the anti-McCarthy senators were pressing for a vote last week—would they today be revoking their action? Could they undo the damage done the Wisconsin senator by such a resolution of "censure" impugning his integrity and his fidelity to his duty, as he sees it, in trying to rid the government of Communists?

The select committee of senators can make a report promptly and briefly—namely, that it cannot try Senator McCarthy because there are no rules of conduct covering his speeches or alleged attitudes in his committee hearings and that, if there are to be rules, then all members should be subject to them hereafter and not retroactively.

Cutting Down Fatigue

You can cut down on fatigue while you iron. If possible do your ironing at one of the boards that can be adjusted to your height. If you must use the usual type of board, try sitting on a kitchen stool that is high enough to bring you comfortably up (elbow height) to the board. A stool with a back rest is a help. And remember that a wide ironing board allows you to cut down on ironing motions.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

New York, Aug. 3 — Such terms as "shocking," "disgraceful" and "corrupt" are trite and weak applied to the final result of a congressional expose of union terrorism, graft and sabotage of the national defense in Kansas City and vicinity.

The teamsters' union was the principal figure, but one union of heavy construction workers and a local of the A F of L Electricians also were concerned. An association of contracting employers and many individual contractors engaged in government armament construction jobs were involved, too.

The final result is that one union man who resisted gang rule within a local of the teamsters is the only person who has been sentenced to prison. He is Edward Chevlin. He was tried three times and finally got six months and a fine of $300 for theoretical "felonious assault." The first two juries disagreed.

The Kansas City Star covered this reign of terror with both initiative and regular, heads-up reporting on the congressional hearing and the subsequent developments in the local grand jury and court.

On the day of Chevlin's conviction, Al Delugach, of the Star, wrote that "of all the grand jury indictments returned last September, after an intensive labor investigation, one jail sentence has resulted—for Edward Chevlin, an outspoken foe of the ruling powers of the A F of L Teamsters' Union. The Circuit Court docket, after nine months, finally has been cleared. Under the jurisdiction of Richard K. Phelps, county prosecutor, the record includes one jury conviction."

Phelps, his office and the local courts are gears in the Truman-Pendergast machine.

So a man who fought the dictatorship which thrives under Dave Beck, the great "labor statesman" lavishly extolled by the Associated Press, The New York Times and Look Magazine, goes to prison to add six months to three weeks that he spent in a hospital in February, 1951, when he was slugged on the head.

He said the man who hit him was Orville Ring, formerly president and business agent of Teamsters' Local 541 and boss goon of the whole sordid situation. Ring was indicted by the county grand jury on two charges of embezzlement, two charges of robbery, two charges of falsification of records and two charges of felonious assault.

Phelps personally prosecuted Chevlin.

The prosecution of Ring and all other defendants who were prosecuted at all was done by his assistants. Chevlin had been a stand-up witness against the terror before two subcommittees of the House, which reported that the Teamsters absolutely shut down the building industry in the Kansas City area, including important military preparations.

The committees' joint report said "violence has become the adjuster of these jurisdictional claims; force has replaced reason in the industry.

The Federal Department of Justice ignored this challenge to government although it was not too busy to persecute New York and Chicago policemen for using their natural physical weapons, but not guns or blackjacks, to arrest wild drunks inciting to race riot and other disorderly characters who fought back when they were arrested in trivial incidents.

In Detroit, Teamsters' locals were shown up by Congressman Clare Hoffman in famulous rackets, including the juke-box and trotting-horse industries. But that investigation was suddenly clamped shut by a mysterious political decision in the Republican camp. Comparable conditions were disclosed in Ohio cities tributary to the Detroit jurisdiction and in Minneapolis.

And James Hoffa, a vice-president of the national union and Dave Beck's regional satrap for

Pacifist Will Stage 'Proclamation' for Hiroshima Attack

Great Barrington, Mass., Aug. 5 (AP)—A 30-year-old navy veteran says he will walk the streets of this town Saturday in a "personal proclamation of guilt" for the atomic bombing of Japan and the U. S. hydrogen bomb tests.

Hollis J. Wyman Jr., a Harvard graduate, said today he is guilty of "burning his fellow human beings, first as a naval officer in Japanese waters, and secondly as a U. S. citizen during the H-bomb tests." He is a member of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, a world-wide pacifist organization. He said he chose Saturday for his day of "atonement" because it falls between the anniversaries of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki bombings.

Wyman applied to the selectment of this western Massachusetts town of 6,712 for permission to stage his "proclamation." It was granted after considerable debate.

He will carry placards and distribute pamphlets throughout the day.

Wyman entered the navy in July, 1943, and served as an officer until June of 1946, when he resigned his commission to join the Fellowship of Reconcilition and begin a career of social work.

Started in England

The Fellowship of Reconciliation started in England about 40 years ago. The purpose of the organization, which claims 11,000 members in this country, is to "work to abolish war and to foster good will among nations, races and classes," according to the New England secretary, Richard D. Hathaway.

Wyman spent two years in France and Germany with the group doing rehabilitation work. His mother, Mrs. Hollis J. Wyman of Auburndale, said he was "revolted" by the destruction caused by the bombings of Europe and "feels guilty about having been in the armed service."

Wyman said the day of atonement was his own idea and was not sponsored by any organization. However, Hathaway said the Fellowship of Reconciliation probably would support Wyman since members are allowed to take any means they choose to work toward world peace.

Wyman's mother said her other son, David, 25, was a conscientious objector during World War 2. She said both grandfathers of the boys were ministers.

Wyman is married and has two children.

Woman Is Killed

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—Mrs. Anna Sommer, 55, driving on a learner's permit, was fatally injured yesterday when her car went out of control. The car hurtled onto a sidewalk, grazed a tree, knocked over 15 feet of wooden fence, smashed through a closed metal garage and plunged down a 35-foot embankment. In the car with her was her husband, Edward. He suffered a head bruise.

Dies on Fishing Trip

Ridgefield, Conn., Aug. 5 (AP)—Dr. John Wesley Sutphen, 66, a practicing dentist with offices in Fordham Road East, New York city, collapsed while on a fishing trip here yesterday and died. Dr. Theodore Safford said death came from natural causes. Robert Unger of Tuckahoe, N. Y., said he and Dr. Sutphen were fishing from a boat on Lake Rippowam here when his companion collapsed. Unger rowed the boat to an estate dock but Ridgefield volunteer firemen and the physician were unable to revive Sutphen.

Agreement Is Signed

Tokyo, Aug. 5 (AP)—Moscow radio today said a barter trade agreement was signed between Communist China and Indonesia. The broadcast in the Japanese language heard in Tokyo quoted Jakarta dispatch as saying negotiations reached an agreement in Jakarta. The radio said Red China will export cotton, textiles, light industry machinery, and Indonesia copra, coffee, quinine and other raw materials. The broadcast however did not give the date of signing.

The Mature Parent

This Mother Wants to Be Her Son's Only Protector

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Bill's Boy Scout troop is planning a week's camping. His father wants him to have the adventure! his mother doesn't.

If Bill is to do any camping, she wants it done in a cottage, not a tent; she wants trained nurses and dieticians about to look after his scratches and vitamins.

"My wife has so exaggerated the dangers of this experience that the boy himself is losing all his own enthusiasm," writes Bill's father. "As another woman, perhaps you can make some sense to her through your column . . ."

I don't think I can. When we exaggerate dangers to control children's actions, we are apt to have a purpose we would just as soon not know about. But I'll do what I can.

We enlarge on the perils that await children on a good adventure — infected bites, subversive germs, deaths by drownings in woodland lakes, broken legs — to convince him that we are his Only Protector.

Once we've convinced him, we have him exactly where we probably want him — immobilized.

Without any experience of adventures himself, he has to accept our experience. He is not old enough to say, "Now why does this woman see only death in a woodland lake? Why does she see me helpless instead of strong? This is a woman who does not see things whole." And refuse to trust the judgment of such a woman.

What hurts has Bill's mother suffered as results from her own independent adventures?

Did her judgment on childhood friends turn out to be good? Or was she so hurt by one that her mother could say, "I warned you that Mary didn't like you well enough to ask you to her party!"

Was she right about the first boy she really liked—or did her hopes about him end in humiliation?

Choices like these were adventures in independent judgment, and if they resulted in hurt — if the hurt was hidden and never healed by loving awareness and encouragement — it was easy to decide to play life safe by avoiding it.

And just as a small child will justify his feelings of helplessness by imagining a tiger under his crib, so Bill's mother may be trying to justify hers by imaginging infection into mosquito bites and death into a woodland lake.

Could she consider the idea that the evil image of the world she's giving Bill projects like a movie screen the anger she still feels at her own defeats — and that for her own peace, she needs release from that anger?

New Explosions Feared in Blaze At Whiskey Plant

Pekin, Ill., Aug. 5 (AP)—Fire fighters today drew back from a flaming American Distilling Co. whiskey rackhouse in fear that a new store of alcohol might ignite and knock over more storage buildings "like dominoes."

One person has been killed, more than 30 injured and seven missing and feared dead in two explosions and fires since Wednesday morning.

Some 110,000 barrels of aging whiskey—the equivalent of 17,325,000 fifth of a gallon bottles—have been destroyed. This loss, plus the plant and equipment destruction, sent the cost of the fire high into the millions of dollars.

The section of the plant burning this morning, Rackhouse E, is only 70 feet from a building where 600,000 gallons of alcohol are stored.

Area Roped Off

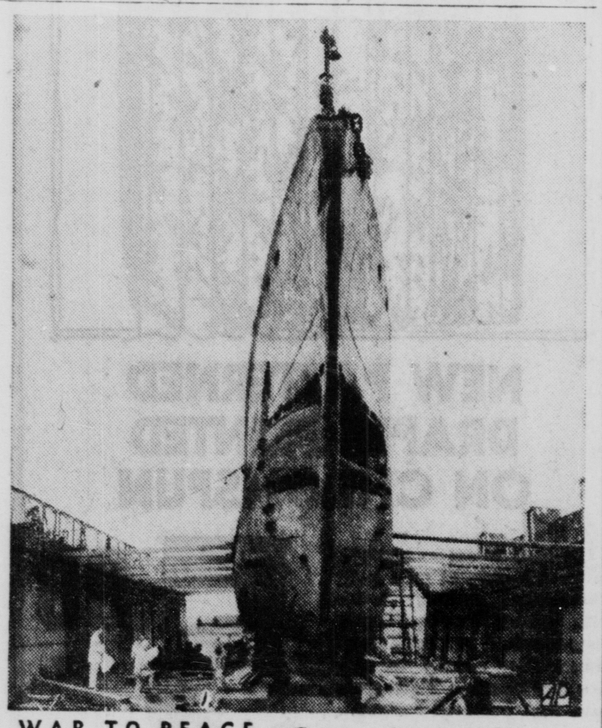

The danger area was roped off. Firemen were pulled back from the front firelines for fear that the alcohol might explode and demolish the entire area.

A half mile away from the burning rackhouse is the huge works of the Corn Products Refining Co. The closest buildings of the distillery and the refining plant are less than a city block apart.

American Distilling liquor brands are nationally distributed. Its best known product is Guckenheimer. Another of its labels is Meadwood. The company also does a large business in bottling "private label" goods, liquors sold at hotels and clubs bearing the seller's label.

Applications Asked

Edwin W. Ashby, Ulster county commissioner of jurors, is compiling a new list of prospective trial jurors. Persons who have not received a questionnaire and who would like to be listed for jury duty may apply to Ashby at the court house, telephone 1012.

THE RUMINATOR

By HUMPHREY B. NEILL

A Column of Contrary Opinion

It would be interesting (at least to the Ruminator) if Vermont newspaper would run "polls" to see where public opinion stands concerning the junior senator from Wisconsin. Other New England newspapers and a few in New York state have felt the public pulse in this regard.

It may surprise readers to learn that in all the polls this writer has seen, Joseph R. McCarthy does not come off in second place; in either second place to the army, or in second place to the junior senator from Vermont, who is presently trying to have Senator McCarthy censured by the Senate. (I do not know, as this is written, how Senator Flanders' resolution will fare, but it look as if he will lose out, which has been the Ruminator's guess ever since the controversy commenced.)

Before me is the result of polls conducted by the Noonan Market Research organization of Boston, and as reported in last Saturday's "Manchester Union." This poll was registered in six New England cities to see how the people felt about McCarthy versus Flanders.

In Manchester, New Hampshire, the people sided with Senator McCarthy to the extraordinary degree of 80.8 per cent. In Worcester, Massachusetts, McCarthy came out with a percentage vote of 76.5. The Boston figure was 71.8 per cent in favor of McCarthy, while Springfield, Massachusetts and Providence, Rhode Island, were tied at 62.9 per cent in the Wisconsin senator's favor. Portland, Maine, had the lowest McCarthy Majority of the six cities, with 53.5 per cent.

As I say, it would be interesting to learn how Vermonters feel about their junior senator's attacks upon McCarthy. The Ruminator has a notion that even in his home state Senator Flanders would lose out in a broad-gauged poll. I find many people agree with me that Senator Flanders is not helping the Republican cause by his strange and changeable actions concerning Senator McCarthy. While countless people no doubt feel as I do that at times the Wisconsin senator is irritating in his manner and is far from courteous in his remarks, nevertheless there is some logic in the argument that the task he is engaged in leaves little room for being polite or courteous.

Certainly, one cannot deny that Senator McCarthy has made the nation conscious of subversion and since his hearings started there has been much more "house cleaning"—both in government and in industry—than was noticeable before.

Entirely aside from McCarthy the individual, there is the larger question of the Republican party itself. The quarrel I have with the Flanders' attacks is the harm it is doing within Republican ranks. Everyone knows (who pays any atention to politics) that among the Republicans there are a good many so-called "New Deal Republicans" who would like nothing better than to see the "Taft wing" of the party washed out. Senator Flanders, I think, may be included in this "eastern" group (to speak geographically).

You have to look at these political questions objectively and impersonally. The idea of getting worked up to fever pitch, because of personal feelings, is foolish. It leads to faulty thinking, also. Now I have no personal feelings in the McCarthy matter and so far as I am concerned you can dislike Joe McCarthy as bitterly as you please. That is your privilege. Every person has a God-given right to his own opinion and his own beliefs in this great country of ours. That is the American privilege which is precious. But when McCarthy-haters get their mad up and take the position that the pro-McCarthyites have no right to favor the Wisconsin Senator then the freedom of thought we treasure is being violated.

Some people ask why the controversy doesn't die. Let's get McCarthy off the front pages of newspapers, they wail. You cannot very well get him out of the news so long as he is attacked from various directions—and I might add, you are unlikely to see him vanish from the news between now and the November elections. Many men running for reelection will doubtless be glad to have Joe McCarthy fighting in their behalf. This will be true particularly if the Flanders' resolutions and amendments end up in a Senate pigeon hole for attention next year, if at all.

Inasmuch as free speech and the free exchange of ideas and opinions are our American heritage it is just as well to talk these things out. So why not write the Editor your views. I shall not mind if you are contrary to the Ruminator!

All except one state requires that applicants for drivers licenses have their eyes examined.

TOUT 'EM TOTEM—Political candidates for a Kansas election have made use of most of the available space on utility poles in Leavenworth, Kans. The political "totem poles" appeared despite an ordinance prohibiting political placards on the poles.

The Party Air

Give your chicken salad a party air: add slivered toasted almonds just before serving. If you want to do some of your preparation ahead, you may cook the chicken the day before your party, cut it up and mix it with French dressing. Refrigerate the marinated chicken at once. Then mix with the other ingredients for the salad just before serving.

Wash Thoroughly

Leafy vegetables, such as spinach, must be washed thoroughly before cooking to remove sand and soil. Then you needn't put water in the pot; enough clings to the leaves to cook them.

Will Not Affect Weight

If you are trying to lose weight, don't be afraid that drinking water will hamper your progress. If you omit salt from your diet, water will not be retained in your tissues and therefore will not affect your weight.

Hints on Cleaning

To lengthen the life of your vacuum cleaner, pick up pins and other sharp materials before using the cleaner. It will pick them up, but they may puncture the bag so that it will leak dust when used.

By DICK KLEINER

Word from the dancing front—there's life in the old folks yet.

Our operative in this business is Ted Straeter, who leads the band at the Persian Room of the Hotel Plaza during the fall-winter-spring season. And about halfway through last season, he noticed something that he herewith passes along. Very interesting bit of sociological research, too.

Suddenly, Ted said, he was swamped with requests for waltzes and slow fox-trots. Previously, it had been mambos and fast fox-trots that were what people wanted. So, between baton waves, he looked out over the dancers and noticed more and more gray heads in the crowd.

He checked with Fred, the Persian Room maitre d', and by golly if Fred hadn't noticed it, too. The old folks at home were stepping out.

So, when next fall rolls around and Straeter gives the first down-beat of the season, he'll be leading his band through a program designed to give the oldsters an even shake. He's programming more slow stuff—although he's not going to drag out old songs. He prefers to use new songs, with a slow beat.

But, if you're young and sound of wind, don't let the aforesaid scare you. Straeter says he believes the young-at-feet like to dance to slower rhythms, too. And he'll throw in an occasional mambo for the flaming youths.

This is the dilemma facing American opera stars today, as outlined by one of the top singers, who naturally prefers to have her name omitted.

"It's like which came first — the chicken or the egg," she says. "If you're with the Met, you command a better fee for your concerts. But if you're with the Met, you don't have much time for concerts. So you don't know what to do."

Brainstorm from Hildegarde's manager, Anna Sosenko, who operates at about 35 brainstorms per hour: "On TV, you make your mistakes in front of everybody. TV programs, like Broadway shows, should try out in small towns first and iron out the kinks before they get on the network."

But is there any town small enough for TV at its worst?

On any important family occasion, Jo Stafford will always sing "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms." That old song is sort of a Stafford family charm. Joe's grandfather courted grandmaw with the song in Gainesboro, Tenn., Jo says. And it was the number she chose for her first public appearance, when she was 12 and sang in Long Beach, Calif.

One thing about the song—it's endearing.

What this television industry needs is someone to approve of what product sponsors which star. Too many performers are sponsored by products that don't match their personalities. The following list shows a much better disribution of sponsors:

George S. Kaufman's sponsor should be a shampoo.
Jack Benny—a finance company.
Liberace—canned corn.
Don Ameche—toothpaste.
Ed Murrow—a cigarette.
Kathryn Murray—vitamins.
Jimmy Durante—hair tonic.
Jack E. Leonard—reducing pills.
Imogene Coca—a soft drink.

Mimi Benzell says she can always tell how long she's been on a nightclub floor by the reactions of the audience.

"It takes almost exactly 15 minutes," she says, "before they start paying serious attention. For the first 15 minutes, they're talking about my gown and finishing their eating and putting down their knives and forks."

Higher State Tax Bills in Offing Despite Cut Hint

Albany, Aug. 5 (AP)—New Yorkers probably will foot a higher state tax bill in coming years despite Gov. Dewey's hint of bigger reductions ahead in the personal income levy.

And 1955, the year following a statewide election, could well be the one for a tax increase somewhere along the line.

A study of a Dewey administration agency indicates state spending in the next 10 years will outstrip the yield of present taxes. That means more taxes sooner or later.

Not Party Matter

It isn't even a party matter, except for debate over who gets taxed. Regardless of which side wins the election next fall, Republicans and Democrats will be bound by the constitutional requirement that income must match spending.

The temporary commission on the fiscal affairs of state government reported last February that the state's operating expenses could be expected to go up to 261 million dollars a year by 1963, "merely to provide for existing services."

It held out little hope of cutting those services. In fact, the commission saw "important pressures" for the state to take on new burdens at an estimated cost of 169 millions a year.

That adds up to 430 million dollars a year in needed revenue.

Seeks Broad Study

Dewey in an order Sunday for a study of possible tax relief for working mothers and the aged, sick or infirm, made his directive broad enough to cover a reshuffle of the entire personal income tax law.

He told the State Tax Commission the review should "embrace any other phases of the state income tax law that need to be modernized in line with social and economic developments of recent years."

The biggest plum dangling before the tax-gatherers, is, of course, the flat 10 per cent that each taxpayer is allowed to deduct from his net tax. Unincorporated business are permitted to knock off 25 per cent, and corporations slightly more than 8 per cent.

Hungry eyes also are focused on the gasoline tax. The temporary commission in highway financing recommends this year that the tax be increased from four to six cents a gallon to help pay for a two-billion-dollar road-building program.

Three Police Wounded

Lake Placid, Aug. 5 (AP)—Three policemen were wounded, one critically, in an early-morning gun battle today with a burglary suspect who shot his way out of a summer camp in this Adirondack Mountain resort. The man, believed armed with a .22 caliber rifle and a pistol, escaped into the adjacent woods.

Tolls Are Reported

Albany, Aug. 5 (AP)—The State Thruway Authority took in $275,790 during its first full month of toll operations on a 115-mile stretch of the superhighway. Chairman Bertram D. Tallamy reported today that 411,803 toll trips covering 18,448,691 miles were made on the thruway during July—without a single fatal accident.

Hotel Is Sold

Albany, Aug. 5 (AP)—The 400-room Ten Eyck Hotel has been shifted from the Schine to the Sheraton Hotel group in what the purchased called a "multi-million-dollar transaction." Sale of the hotel was announced yesterday, but the actual purchase price was not disclosed.

Use Tin Cans

Use the open ends of tin cans, in various sizes, when you want to cut rounds of bread for pretty summer sandwiches and canapes. You can make the sandwiches interesting by using one round cut from white bread along with one cut from whole-wheat or rye bread.

Forced to Disrobe

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—A Connecticut man was seized early today after he allegedly forced his way into the Grenwich Village apartment of an attractive blonde and forced her to disrobe at gunpoint. The woman, Marless Joyce, 24, managed to flee from her apartment at 86 West 1t2h street when a man friend, not identified, knocked on her door. Hearing the screams of the woman as the couple raced down the stairs, neighbors called police. The alleged intruder, captured as he ran toward Fifth avenue, identified himself as Joseph Marro, 26, of 41 Clay street, New Haven, Conn. His mother reportedly said Marro was studying engineering at New Haven College and was married and that his wife lived in the South.

Obey God, Is Plea

Princeton, N. J., Aug. 5 (AP)—The World Presbyterian Alliance today advised its members in 45 nations on both sides of the Iron Curtain, "be loyal to the government of the nation in which you live," but in case of conflict obey God, not man. In a message closing the 10-day 17th General Council of the Alliance, the 400 delegates told their brethern that Christ is the only hope in a world dominated by fear of atomic warfare. It advised its 40 million adherents: "Be loyal to the government of the nation in which you live, but if a decision is forced, remember that as a Christian you must obey God rather than man."

VFW Rejects Bid

Philadelphia, Aug. 5 (AP)—Delegates to the 55th annual encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars rejected today a plan to assess the VFW's 1,300,000 members $1 each to build a memorial building in Washington, D. C. Rep. James E. Van Zandt (R.-Pa.) former VFW national commander, had urged adoption of the assessment so the $1,250,000 ultra-modern five-story Shrine of Patriotism could be "built quickly" without financial headaches.

To Lift Debt Ceiling

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—The Senate Finance Committee voted today to lift temporarily by six billion dollars the present 275 billion dollar federal debt ceiling.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Aug. 5 (AP) — The stock market turned downward today after a firm start.

Trading began fast with prices higher. Aircrafts and a wide variety of low priced issues found good early support.

Toward the end of the morning, losses began to appear among stocks which have been market leaders in recent sessions. By early afternoon, it was apparent that many investors were taking profits on many issues. The trading pace continued rapid.

Low priced stock tended to hold early gains. But Steels, Motors, Rubbers, Railroads and Chemicals declined. Some losses extended to three points, but most were around a point. Aircrafts became irregular while Radio-Television and Airline issues steadied.

National Dairy climbed to a new high of 89 after the company announced a two-for-one stock split and a five-cent increase in the quarterly dividend. But then it backed away and showed a loss for the session.

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—Richard H. Balch, Democratic chairman, today termed Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's order for a "fresh look" at the state's income tax law" nothing more than an election-year publicity stunt." WEEKLY FOOD REVIEW

By The Associated Press

Your Sunday dinner should cost you less money this week: Prices on many meats will be lower than a week ago and once again there'll be a fine selection of vegetables at moderate prices.

Ribs of beef will be a favorite weekend special at prices two to eight cents below those of a week ago. Legs of lamb will be cheaper in many sections of the country, with reductions ranging to eight cents a pound.

Pork Chops Cheaper

Even the exclusive pork chop will be cheaper. One large chain expects to trim prices on this item all across the country, offering center cut chops at anywhere from three to 20 cents a pound below week-ago levels. Loins of pork will be a weekend feature here and there, too.

Broilers and fryers will be advertised by a good number of stores, with reductions running around two cents a pound. Some markets will emphasize oven-ready turkeys.

You may also find lower prices in your market on such items as chuck roast, steaks, lamb chops, ground beef, legs and rumps of veal, beef liver, and bacon.

Egg Prices Down

Eggs are going to be cheaper, too. The price of a dozen large grade A whites will be a couple of cents lower than last week in numerous outlets.

The poultry and egg national board says wholesale price of the large grade A eggs is down about 23 cents a dozen from this time a year ago—"the widest spread in a year's time that egg men can remember." The explanation: There are a lot more hens and they're laying a lot more eggs.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture singles out the egg as a food headliner for the week. It calls the egg a time-saving, work-saving feature for hot weather meals and points out that dishes like egg salad are always popular.

Good Vegetable Buys

Vegetables grown in nearby areas again head the list of good buys in produce. Among them are cabbage, cucumbers, beans, celery, radishes and green onions. Produce men also recommend peppers, onions, potatoes, lettuce (particularly Romaine), eggplant, topped carrots and bunched beets.

Many stores are featuring cantaloupes and honeydew melons. Fruit specialists say limes continue on the bargain counter. Peaches are plentiful and heavier supplies of Bartlett pears from California have brought a reduction in prices on that fruit.

A little lower at wholesale this week were grapefruit, cherries, plums, nectarines and apricots. Lemons and western apples went up a bit.

Good Lunch Course

Add a little grated onion to deviled ham. Spread toast with the ham mixture and top with scrambled eggs. Makes a good lunch course when served with fresh vegetable salad.

ASKS STUDY—Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R., N.J.) asked the Senate to form a bipartisan commission of three Republicans and three Democrats, with Vice President Richard Nixon as chairman, to study the McCarthy controversy. They would report their findings to the Senate by Feb. 1, 1955.

Woodstock

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, Jr.

Appeal Sounded For Public Funds To Aid Program

Woodstock, Aug. 5—One of the busiest areas in the township this summer is the Woodstock Recreation Field. Ringed by mountains and once more green again after the recent rain, the field itself is probably one of the most beautiful playgrounds to be found anywhere. In order to maintain the fine recreation program now underway, Kenneth L. Wilson, chairman of the Recreation Committee, has issued his annual appeal to the public for funds.

According to Wilson, through the efforts of the supervisor, town board and a generous and hard working group of citizens, matching funds were made available in 1948 for a state approved recreation project in this village.

Started From Hay Field

"Starting with a hay field, there has gradually evolved a playground and recreation field, which is unsurpassed in the State of New York for a township of comparable size," Wilson said.

The popular turquoise hued wading and swimming pol became a reality in 1952 through the generosity of Anthony J. DeLisio. Last year, modern bathroom facilities were added.

"With the additions of these greatly needed assets to the health and safety of our younger generation, increased costs of maintenance were inevitable," Wilson said. "Already this spring we have expended nearly a thousand dollars in sand blasting and reconditioning the pool, purchasing a vacuum cleaner for cleaning the pool and in putting a new roof on the building used for the public health nursing committee's excellent program for girls."

Schedule is Listed

Andrew Shekitka, physical education teacher of the Onteora Central School, who is retained this season by the Recreation Committee as playground supervisor, reminds residents of the current schedule at the field which is open from 9:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m., Monday through Friday, and from 9:30 to 12 noon on Saturday. Classes in swimming for non-swimmers and swimmers are held for both boys and girls from 10:30 to 11 a. m. every day. A non-swimmers class is also held every afternoon, except Saturday and Sunday from 4 to 4:30 p. m. From 9 to 10:30 a. m. there is soft ball for the younger boys and girls. The girls have been invited to participate this year. Shekitka is assisted by Bernard Lapo, Jr., and the swimming is in charge of Toni McClellan and Marileen Webster. Baseball games are held every day at 2 p. m.

Through arrangements with Mrs. Malcolm Rose, director of the girls recreation program, held from 9:30 to 12, Monday through Friday at the club house, boys wishing to participate in the craft program may join the group. Mrs. Rose is assisted in the craft, game and story hour program by Roberta Kullmann and Betsy Wagenfohr.

On Wednesday morning there were six different activities in progress simultaneously at the field. The swimming pool had its large share of eager swimmers and learners, a game of softball was in full swing, the play area with slides and swings was bouncing with small fry. Inside the club house the painters and craftworkers were at work, while outside a ring of youngsters was acting the parts of a story being read from a book.

In a far end of the field a group of boys and girls were holding an archery contest, aimed at the targets set against bales of hay. Archery is taught every day from 11 to 12 noon, to both boys and girls.

Lauded by Cashin

The field is closed Saturday afternoons and Sundays.

Emphasizing the value of such a recreation program, Wilson said that County Judge John J. Cashin, judge of the Children's Court of Ulster county, has publically complemented Woodstock for its freedom from juvenile delinquency. "We like to believe that the program carried on by your committee has contributed toward that goal."

As the summer has progressed the popularity of the field has grown and attendance increased. Such a program can only be partially financed from public funds. The committee must rely upon public contributions. Ambitious and exciting plans are limited only by the generosity of those contributing to the program. There is nothing happier than a happy and busy youngster. They are there in droves, cherishing every minute of it and well worthy of any contribution large or small. Checks may be made payable to the Woodstock Recreational Fund.

Comedy Is Next Bill at Playhouse

Woodstock, Aug. 5—An American career-girl's search for romance in Venice is the theme of The Time of the Cuckoo, the comedy which will enliven the Woodstock Playhouse stage next week from Tuesday, Aug. 10, through Sunday. The play by Arthur Laurents enjoyed a long and highly successful run on Broadway season before last.

Michael Howard, Playhouse director, has assigned the stellar role of Leona to Barbara Ames, talented actress who appeared in Woodstock several summers ago in Joy to the World, and who recently finished a New York engagement in Ceremony of Innocence. Opposite Miss Ames will be Gregory Morton, a prominent player new to Woodstock, who was featured on Broadway last season in Sherlock Holmes.

Meeting Basis of Play

In the setting of a Venetian boarding house, Leona at first appears to be the classical American tourist. She is eager, friendly and completely unrepressed in her pursuit of sights and souvenirs. What happens when she meets her "silver-haired idol," Renato DiRossi (Gregory Morton), is the basis of the comedy.

The flagstoned Italian garden bordering on a canal is peopled with other American visitors, all adding to the bright humor of the play. They are Eddie, the glib young artist, to be played by Bernard Kates, and his wife, June, a feather-brained beauty, played by Diana Douglas. Mr. McIlhenny, acted by Michael Lewin, is another type — his feet are tired after dragging from one gallery to the next in the wake of the tireless Mrs. McIlhenny. A contrasting personality is the Signora Fiora, the worldly and handsome hostess, to be portrayed by Ruth Manning.

Members who did the flooring work are: Everand Short, Harley Parks, Fred Markle, Nelson Shultis, Phil Tipp, Walt Tipp, Dick Whelan, Charles Bailey and Andrew Shekitka.

There will be a special meeting of the club Wednesday, Aug. 11, at the clubhouse at 8 p. m., to determine the number of the tickets for the clambake sold. It is respectfully requested that all those persons holding tickets for sale report at that time.

There will be an Ulster County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs meeting on the second Thursday in September at the Lake Katrine Club.

than strictly "doctor-patient."

The osteopath lay on his cot in county jail today, listened to a portable radio and read magazines about "hot rod" cars. Detectives yesterday halted their questioning, saying the prisoner would not talk and they were merely wasting time.

Two Complaints Filed

Attorneys for the physician filed two complaints with the Cuyahoga and Cleveland Bar Associations against Sheriff Joseph M. Sweeney, contending Dr. Sheppard had been deprived of his civil rights.

Although they did not specify what their complaint was based on, they previously contended they had not been able to see the defendant as often as they wished.

The Rev. Alfred C. Kreke, pastor of Bay Village Methodist Church, visited the prisoner yesterday and said Dr. Sheppard complained detectives keep "thrusting before him pictures of his murdered wife."

He said Dr. Sheppard ceased talking to detectives because of the pictures and repetitious questions he had been asked. The minister said Dr. Sheppard felt police were interested only in convicting him.

Pilgrims 'Never Had It So Good' At Historic Plymouth Rock

BURNT SUGAR FRESH PEACH CAKE is a Plymouth, Mass., concoction which would have delighted the Pilgrims.

When the dauntless Pilgrims arrived at Plymouth Rock in 1620, food was their first problem. The stern and rockbound coast of Massachusetts was a pretty barren larder. But not so today.

We walked a few steps from the historic Rock past the old fort and meeting house to meet Bill Dearn and Ernest McGrath who run the American Home Town Clam Bake on the shore of the flashing bay.

These boys sure dish it out—clam chowder, steamed clams, fresh live lobster, baked sweet and white potatoes, grilled frankfurters, baked sausage, fried fish, corn on cob, brown bread, watermelon and coffee.

Next day John H. Golden of the Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. Golden took us to lunch at rose-covered Hobshole Inn, built in 1795, famous for its New England food. Overlooking Plymouth harbor, owned by Francis and Clementine O'Neill, this early American inn has two kitchens. One Mr. O'Neill uses—his wife the other.

Both wonderful cooks. They disagree about certain dishes, so each cooks his own way in his own kitchen. Results are terrific.

Our lunch, served by a young woman dressed like a Pilgrim maid, was according to the generous O'Neills, very light. We just had the freshest and most beautiful of fruit cups (grapefruit, grapes, black cherries, orange sections and fresh pineapple cubes topped with fruit sherbert,) New England clam chowder, huge stuffed baked lobsters, potato puffs, carrots in cheese sauce, peach and nut salad, hot rolls and amazing bread sticks. The sticks, made of slightly sweet dough using 6 fresh eggs and a pound of butter, nutmeg, cinnamon and mace, and rolled in sugar before baking, were made in Mr. O'Neill's kitchen.

How the Pilgrims would have enjoyed them that first Thanksgiving day! Dessert was butter almond crunch pie.

The Goldens next drove us to visit the Howland House, then Governor Bradford's grave and other historical spots. Finally, to their hospitable home, where Mrs. Golden brought out a burnt sugar peach cake with fluffy white frosting. For sure, the Pilgrim Fathers never had it so good.

Dangerous Items Must Be Marked If Sold in State

Albany, Aug. 5 (AP)—If that floor wax, paint remover, solder or any other chemical compound you buy in New York state is dangerous, the manufacturer will have to tell you so.

Under joint regulations adopted yesterday by the state and New York city health departments, manufacturers of household and industrial chemicals must place "danger" or "warning" labels on any "hazardous substances" sold in the state.

As long as there is some risk in using the substance—it does not have to be deadly—a special label will be required, and it must spell out the risk.

The regulations give manufacturers three weeks to start marking such products. Dealers, however, will be permitted to exhaust their present stocks of unmarked merchandise.

Joint Statement

In a joint statement, Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, state health commissioner and Dr. Leona Baumgartner, New York city health commissioner, said:

"Many compounds for home and industrial use, such as stain removers, disinfectants, insecticides, drain cleaners, stove polishes and bleaching agents contain chemicals which make the compound dangerous when improperly used."

The labelling regulations, they said, were aimed at better control of materials "which may not be poison according to a strict definition of poison, but which can cause serious illness and even death if improperly used."

The regulations, added to the state and city sanitary codes, become effective Aug. 27 in the city and Aug. 26 elsewhere.

Becomes Misdemeanor

They make it a misdemeanor to sell, distribute or supply anything containing a "hazardous substance" unless it bears a label giving an adequate warning of the danger. The penalty for each violation is a fine up to $50, or a jail term up to six months, or both.

The commissioners pointed out that truly poisonous materials were "usually labeled under existing laws." The new rules, they said, were worked out in co-operation with chemical manufacturers, who must assume the burden of deciding whether any substance could be dangerous.

Such substances must bear a label marked with a world like "warning" or "danger" that contains:

1. A statement of the pricipal hazards, such as "causes burns" or "flammable."
2. A description of precautions to be taken.
3. Instructions for first aid treatment.

General Types

The regulations do not list specific substances regarded as hazardous, but do describe the general types of danger in the use of non-poisonous chemicals.

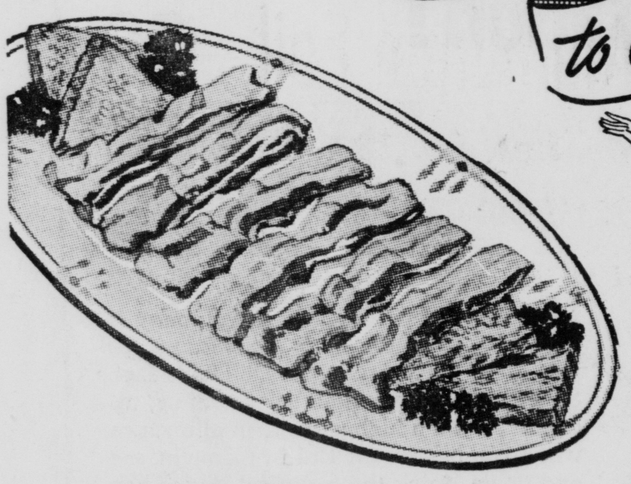

The commissioners, however, listed the following materials as types that might contain hazardous substances:

Floor cleaners and waxes, furniture polish and stains, paint removers, rug and upholstery cleaners, metal and leather polishes, home craft and hobby supplies, some of the new solders, "do it yourself" and "fix it" preparations for homeowners, insect sprays, deedorants and anti-mildew preparations.

State health department records indicate 10 persons died from misuse of such materials last year, and city health records show 16 deaths from similar causes.

The North Atlantic treaty was signed April 4, 1940, at Washington, D. C., by 12 nations.

BOOK REVIEW

To further increase interest in the Kingston Library the following review by Mrs. G. Cramer Dodge is published.

MANHATTAN AND ME
By Oriana Atkinson

A lively sense of humor is required to get the full flavor of this rollicking, fault-finding, flattering insider's view of New York by a native New Yorker. Mrs. Atkinson was born in New York—in Greenwich Village, no less—so she can slap it around if she wishes to—and does—most entertainingly.

In reading her reminiscences of her childhood in the Village, it is hard to believe that New York was like that less than a half century ago. The author tells how she lived in one of a row of cottages with deep front yards on Seventh avenue just below 14th street, how, when piles of snow accumulated along the curb after a heavy storm, they got out their sleds and coasted down the steep inclines just like kids in the country. How they gathered for worship twice on Sundays in the Metropolitan (M.E.) Temple a few steps up the street, and all the rest of the week entered with zest into all the other church activities. Not willingly would they miss any of them, they were too much fun. How some of their school teachers pointed with pride to the great percentage (over 90%) of American born pupils in their classes, to the heartless joy of the Americans—and the shame-faced embarrassment of the poor little foreigners. Just like life in a small country town.

When the author was employed in a downtown office, she spent most of her lunch hours (of 45 minutes) exploring the lower tip of the island to her great delight and edification. The Battery was then a delightful place, where one could stand along the sea wall and watch the varied shipping, almost like a sea voyage, and visit the Park's greatest attraction—the Aquarium — now, alas, demolished. There is so much of interest to be seen in the financial district, its a wonder the author ever returned to her office on time. First on her list is Trinity Church, surrounded by tombs of the great and humble of Revolutionary Times. Next is St. Paul's with its exquisite white and gold interior, its flag draped pew of our first President and its gorgeous crystal chandelier, and the story of its temporary banishment and restoration. Next on the list is City Hall, now partly spoiled through neglect, but with its lovely, branching, airy, graceful double staircase, rising unsupported from first to second floor and with the massive crystal chandelier hanging above it still intact. And the beautiful, lacy Woolworth tower, mighty proof of the power of five and ten cents.

Then there are the restaurants of all kinds in basements, in lofts, on rooftops, and the shops of all kinds into which office workers pour at the lunch hour, choking them and the surrounding streets to a near standstill. In fact all traffic on Nassau street from Park place to Wall street gives way to the milling crowd that flows along it from curb from 12 to two. You hardly have to walk, you just step into the crowd and swim along with it. One great change in the shops is noted in recent years. Where 25 years ago it used to be women's wear, plain and fancy; now there is a demand for housekeeping equipment and the like. The reason, to quote the author, "In my day, married women kept their mouths good and shut about being married. Employers frowned on married women employes." How times have changed.

The author's experience in downtown noonday rushes served to help later on when, as wife of Brooks Atkinson, dramatic critic, she ran interference for him down the aisle on first nights at the theatre to help him get away to meet that newspaper deadline. Her other comments about first night incidents are most amusing.

There is a whale of a chapter about New York shops and beauty parlors. The former, especially the big department stores strike her as the worst possible places to get anything she wants without a long wait or a pitched battle-or both. As for the beauty parlors, time was when they pampered their patrons as well as doing a good job of a permanent, wave set or what not but now they do neither and grossly insult their customers besides. As for Klein's on the Square, that is something else again. According to Mrs. Atkinson, you haven't lived until you have been there and seen it all, especially the so-called dressing rooms.

However the author has sought out the really good little specialty shops and generously gives their addresses. Here are a few. The Dream Dressmaker-Marion Wright, 12 East 53rd street; The Jill-of-all-Trades-Marie Williams, 302 East 27th street; Places for oddities and antiques-Jean's Curio Shop, 1287 Sixth avenue; Sadie Frank, 101 West 83rd street; (One of a kind Shop). Antique silver, John Mayer's, 602 Lexington avenue; An exceptional Book Shop-Argosy Book Shop, East 59th street.

There is a chapter about the Lenox Library, which the author calls "The House of Lions "Everyone knows about the library's massive collection of books and the desirability of its secluded corridors and plane tree studded Bryant Park as a meeting place for young lovers, as well as a resting place for those of all ages, but few know about the "Readers Advisers Room" where there are many special services and information about everything; and the Music Division out of which grew the very popular concerts broadcast in Bryant Park when weather permits, at other times in the lecture room. And these services are privately endowed by public spirited citizens.

It was when the author and her husband drove over from their summer home in the Catskills to see how the water supply was doing in the Schoharie Reservoir and nearly always found it bad, that she decided to write a short history of the New York city water supply and included it in this book. Starting with the days of the "Tea Water Pump" somewhere near Chatham and Mulberry streets from which old New York obtained its water supply, through the days of The Manhattan Company (Aaron Burr's great swindle) which promised much and delivered little; through the glad day when the city staged its great celebration of the opening of the Croton Water Supply; through the tapping of the Catskill Mountain and Delaware river reservoirs, Mrs. Atkinson traces New York's waste and worry about its water supply, still an unsolved problem.

No matter how much Mrs. Atkinson finds to criticize about her home town, just let an outsider say a word of disparagement about it and hear her tell them, "if you don't like it, go back where you came from."

Even though he was married he denied emphatically that he had any fear of women.

Jim—Why, I've told thousands of them where to get off (bragging to a group of barroom acquaintances).

Russian submarines, Callaghan said, were operating from bases around Vladivostok and to the north.

"The weather would be against them operating from these northern bases during much of the year."

But they could block sea lines by prowling outside harbors.

"At least at first they would give us trouble."

But, he said, "hunter-killed groups of carriers and destroyers are the greatest potential capability against this submarine threat."

seen in my years on the department—and I've seen plenty."

Acting Lt. Henry Devlin said, "He had so many welts he looked like a zebra."

An assistant medical examiner said the boy had been beaten many times.

The woman's companion, Alfred Bates, 23, was quoted by police as admitting he occasionally struck the boy at her urging.

Police also reported:

Bates said he was in the apartment during a beating of the child yesterday.

The youngster moaned so much in the closet, Bates said, "I went over and took him out and put him to bed. I couldn't stand hearing the groans of the kid anymore. I'd been listening to it for three hours."

Later Bates asked a hotel elevator operator to look at the boy because he "looked sick." The operator, Seaman Middleton called police but the child was dead when they arrived.

The boy was born out of wedlock in White Plains, not far from the mother's own family home.

The Mahony woman said Bates is not the father of the child, that she knew him for several years and decided about a month ago to "hook up" with him. They came to New York, signed up for relief and received food allotments from Roman Catholic charitable organizations.

Bates, an unemployed landscape gardener, has an arrest record and currently is on probation.

After questioning throughout the day, the Mahony woman and Bates were booked on homicide charges last night.

Police said the mother told of beating the boy of late when his crying annoyed her.

Authorities said the child may have been crying from hunger. They said he had last eaten on Tuesday night—a peanut butter sandwich and a bottle of soda water. His mother said she recalled giving her son milk several days ago.

In the apartment refrigerator was a half bottle of ginger ale and an open can of tuna fish—nothing else.

Kingston Point Beach to Open Officially Tonight

The city's reconditioned beach at Kingston Point will be officially dedicated in a brief ceremony scheduled to start at 7:30 today.

Mayor Frederick H. Stang, who recently discovered that the beach could be used safely as an important local recreational facility, will cut a ribbon at the entrance, to start the dedication program. He will explain what has been done to make the beach safely available to the public again and tell of future plans.

Fifth Ward Alderman Samuel J. Perry, who recently commended the mayor for reopening the beach, and E. Frank Flanagan, who operated the beach in the 1920's are also scheduled to speak briefly. Members of the Common Council will be among officials attending.

Reconditioning of the beach started as soon as Mayor Stang discovered, at the end of last month, that the property was available and the water was safe for public bathing.

The public responded quickly to announcement of the project and crowds, estimated at a total of 4,000 went to the beach over last week-end. It has also been attracting many bathers during week days.

Lifeguards are scheduled to go on duty tomorrow.

I remember not so many years ago when Barney Mann had the fruit store next to ours up at 91 Broadway. He featured all the local fruit in season. The group consists of Irvin Gilman, flute; Ronald Rossman, oboe; Stanley Walden, clarinet; Herman Gersten, bassoon; Robert Swissholm, Franch horn, and Susan Pearlman, piano. Gilman is on the faculty of the Manhattan School of Music. Roseman, besides playing in the American Chamber Orchestra, is on the faculty of the Henry Street Settlement Music School. Walden and Gersten have played widely in orchestral groups in New York. Swissholm was a member of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra. Miss Pearlman has played in many chamber music recitals at Tanglewood and New York.

The concert next Sunday will feature the following works: Quintet for Woodwinds and Piano K 452 by Mozart; Trois Pieces Breves by Ibert; Trio Sonata in E Minor by Telemann; and Sextet for Piano and Woodwinds by Poulenc.

Think It Through

By EDWARD F. HUTTON

In the darkness of the night, thieves prowl. Thieves who steal only money are petty thieves compared to those who steal our rights to live as Free Americans.

Mr. Hutton

The greatest of our treasures is Freedom. So long as we have the Bill of Rights, we remain free.

When the New Deal substituted political decree for law, their purpose was theft,—, theft of earnings, of work, of liberties. They could have had no other purpose, else they would have stayed within Constitutional Law.

"Thou shalt not steal!"

There is no future in any government based on deception or lack of moral principles.

Freedom is established and kept living by our Rugged BILL OF RIGHTS. It gave our people the right to produce, save and acquire. It started in 1791. The attempt to change its concepts was born in 1933. Then started the tax route — to ride the taxpayers. Now we have a change.

Hold on tight, neighbor, stay awake, and forget the petty thieves who steal dimes. Keep your eyes open to the Russian agents in our country who want to steal the works!

Stay awake, neighbor!

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

I remember not so many years ago when Barney Mann had the fruit store next to ours up at 91 Broadway. He featured all the local fruit in season. As the warm days of summer of Ulster county began to ripen the fruit and vegetables the farmers would bring in their produce to his store. The neighborhood could really buy garden-fresh Ulster county produce at "Barney's" as they called him. Mrs. Barney Mann had an excellent recipe for huckleberry pie which she taught me. I remember the pie crust for one double crust took one-quarter pound of butter, but it was the best crust I ever ate. Usually I used to mix it in her kitchen so she could watch me then it would really come out delicious. She had a magic touch with pie crust. We used a whole quart of huckleberries for one pie. But when that pie was done and still just a little warm, it took just one sitting and two or three people at the most to finish it there and then. Her apple and fresh peach pies were just as delicious. But without her overseeing it, I simply could not make them as good.

I was once talking about the Ulster county tomatoes which when taken off the vines at the right time are as delicious as fruit and I prefer them to any dessert. A man from Texas was in the group and he felt that tomatoes grown in his part of the country were tops. All winter long I try 'imported' tomatoes, hard, light colored things in boxes and to me they do not even taste as good as a poor Ulster county potato. Then comes the season for our local tomatoes and if you catch them at the proper ripeness, I don't care how big Texas is, they just can't beat our home grown variety, nor our sweet delicious peaches or apples. Our ground has magic sweetness in it. From years back it seems the best of our produce was shipped elsewhere and only a little left for home use, no doubt because the ripened foods must be sold at once. Nothing can equal our young home-grown lettuce. It is tender and sweet. I never liked the over-large, tough skinned fruit and vegetables we import for winter use. Our wild strawberries although they never reach the stores are out of this world. Many of our berries grow wild and in such locations that they are never picked.

As a little girl I remember my grandmother's yard in Port Ewen where we had a little of everything, which grew like topsy. Wild strawberries were eaten where picked. My elders used to make me have a cup of water to dip off the sand, and I insisted on a saucer of sugar for dipping. Then came delicate black-caps, and soft red raspberries. I would eat them like candy, when and where I pleased, never thinking there were yards without them. Huckleberries grew in abundance, but we did little with them. There was also the sour gooseberries we ate once in a while. There were untended sweet white grapes and the large blue grapes. We all ate what and when we pleased. When the berries made my grandmother's hands stained she would use unripened grapes to rub off the stain. When my father brought over company from Kingston on Sunday they too indulged and would be quite excited about eating from vines and trees and the sweetness of the fruit. It was only when I moved to Kingston that I leaned about "imported" tough fruit and vegetables. I think we should do more boasting about our produce. To me there is none better.

The famous 31-man Lewis and Clark westward expedition experienced only one death, from a bilious colic, not wild animals or Indians.

As Pegler Sees It

the mid-west, with "jurisdiction" over 26 states, had general authority over all the depredations, including an insurance or "welfare" operation amounting to many millions of dollars. Beck, the great labor statesman, was at the top, claiming three million subjects.

Chevlin risked his life to fight gunmen in his union. He was used as a witness in the prosecution of Ring, the man who had slugged him. But when his own attorney tried to use the congressional committee report in his defense, Circuit Court Judge Duvaul Strother ruled it out on the ground that it was "inflammatory." Phelps, the prosecutor, objected to the use of this evidence in favor of a man whom his own office had used as a witness against Ring.

Chevlin's "felonious assault" consisted of brandishing a revolver to force his way through a group of men at the foot of the stairs as he left a violent meeting of Teamsters' Local 838. He already had been beaten twice and fired upon. He had been witness to other beatings in the same union hall. His wife testified to telephone calls at night, warning her that her husband must not oppose Ring. On the night that he displayed the pistol, two carloads of men followed Chevlin as he drove home.

Chevlin has been fighting rackets and gangsterism in the unions from within, as a member, for 30 years.

The clean sweep of the docket is a dramatic defeat of the public and government by this unique American Fascism. Here again, the mob won in court and the victim got the works in Harry Truman's bailiwick.

Wint Smith, of Kansas, Wingate Lucas, of Michigan, and Jeffrey Hillelson, a freshman representing Truman's home district, all Republicans, were associated with Hoffman in the futile expose. Their counsel was William F. McKenna, who also ran the equally futile Detroit examination and is now digging into the "housing" racket in Washington.

Brass, copper, iron and galvanized kettles should not be used when making pickles as these metals are likely to cause undesirable color changes or react with the acid or salt to produce unwholesome substances. Use enameled ware, glass, aluminum, stainless steel or stoneware utensils for your pickle making.

Compressed and Active

Ever wonder what the difference is between compressed and active dry yeast? Compressed yeast is a moist mixture of yeast and starch, and the least is in an active state; because they yeast is moist, it is perishable. Active dry yeast is similar to compressed yeast except that the mixture has been dried and comes packaged in granular form.

What a flavor!

Game in no-trump would have been a cinch on the North-South cards in today's hand. With North as declarer, the defenders could not run the hearts. North would be ready to run five spades, three diamonds, and the ace of clubs as soon as he gained the lead.

No experienced rubber bridge player can blame South for preferring to bid the game at spades because of his 150 honors. Game at spades looked equally safe, and a good player doesn't sniff at 150 points.

West opened the ten of hearts and continued the suit, South ruffing the second round. South next began to draw the trumps, discovering on the third round that West could no longer follow suit. This was rather embarrassing, since South had to use all of his remaining trumps to draw East's trumps.

Since West discarded two low clubs, South correctly assumed that the finesse would lose. South did his best by running three rounds of diamonds, after which he tried for an end-play by leading the queen of hearts from the dummy.

Unfortunately, for declarer, East had discarded a high heart on the third round of diamonds. He was able to capture the queen of hearts and then get to his partner's hand with a low heart. West then cashed the jack of diamonds to defeat the contract.

South had made a good attempt to recover, but only after he had played the hand badly. There was no reason to draw the trumps so early.

After ruffing the second round of hearts, South should take the club finesse at once. East would win and continue hearts whereupon South must discard a club instead of ruffing. Now East cannot continue hearts, since dummy can take the punch. East must shift to a different suit, whereupon South can draw the trumps and take his tricks.

It's all right to steal the hand from your partner in order to score honors, but if you do so, you must make sure of playing the hand correctly.

Newlyweds Cut Cake

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Fidow, she is the former Miss Barbara Kathryn Kelly, cut their wedding cake following the Aug. 1 ceremony at the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. (Pennington Photo)

Barbara K. Kelly, Christopher Fidow Wed at Redeemer

Miss Barbara Kathryn Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kelly of 18 Spruce street, became the bride of Christopher Fidow, son of Mrs. Sarah Fidow and the late Mr. Fidow, 20 West Union street, in a ceremony Sunday, Aug. 1, at the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer at 3:30 p. m. The Rev. David C. Gaise, pastor, officiated.

Mrs. Lester Decker, organist, and John McCullough, soloist, offered The Lord's Prayer and Because. Mrs. Decker played the traditional wedding selections.

The church decorations included baskets at the altar filled with white gladioli, white delphiniums and white larkspur. Palms also decorated the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle over taffeta delicately appliqued with re-embroidered alencon lace, sweetheart neckline and short set-in sleeves. Her skirt terminated into a sweep train which also was appliqued with alencon lace. Her Juliet cap headpiece of alencon lace was trimmed with a pleated nylon fluting. She carried a white lace-covered prayer book with white orchid, cascade and showers of white delphiniums.

Miss Beverly Hooker of 79 Hudson street, Kingston, a friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a yellow strapless gown of nylon tulle over taffeta with matching jacket. She carried a hand bouquet of aqua delphiniums with a yellow ribbon.

Miss Marcia Carles of Flushing, L. I., a cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid, and she wore an aqua gown of nylon tulle over taffeta styled with round neckline and Bo-peep collar. Her bouffant skirt had tiny velvet bows throughout and her half-hat headpiece was of nylon pleated tulle over taffeta with rosettes on each side. She carried a miniature hand bouquet of yellow delphiniums with aqua ribbon.

Gail Carles of Flushing, L. I., a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her gown and headpiece was the same as the junior bridesmaid. She carried a basket of yellow and aqua delphiniums with matching bow.

Best man was Seraphim Fidow, brother of the groom, also of 20 West Union street. Howard Kelly of New Salem, uncle of the bride and Bartholemew Reilly of Port Ewen, brother-in-law of the groom, were ushers.

A reception for 140 guests followed at the Alpine. Out-of-town guests were present from New Jersey, Flushing, L. I., Poughkeepsie and Andes. Afterward, the couple left for a wedding trip through the northern states.

For traveling, the bride chose a beige linen suit dress with brown accessories and wore a white orchid corsage. They will make their future home with the bride's parents at 18 Spruce street.

Mrs. Fidow was graduated from Kingston High School, Class of 1949, and is employed in the office of the Manhattan Shirt Co. Mr. Fidow also was graduated from Kingston High School, Class of 1948, and is employed at Meyers Electric. He served two years in the army, 13 months of which were spent in Korea.

Hyde Park Library Announces Third Annual Art Show

The third annual regional art exhibit sponsored by the Hyde Park Free Library will be held on the lawn August 13-15.

Any artist, including visitors, may participate. Any media will be accepted but careful framing is urged for the protection of the picture. Further information may be obtained from William Robert Wood, general chairman, at the Robinwood Gallery, Hyde Park.

Each artist may exhibit three works and in the event of a sale may enter a replacement. There will be an entry fee of one dollar. All profits are credited to the general fund of the library.

Mr. Wood said today that Kingston had not been represented last year. "We certainly wanted Kingston last year and hope to see a big group this year," he said. "Actually, after 'Pop' Furman died I didn't know where to turn in that city for a contact. In justice to his memory and the hard work he did to promote art we should all see to it that his fair city is well represented this year at Hyde Park. I can promise that I shall give a little nod and a warm smile to every Kingston entry as I think of 'Pop' and my pleasant contacts with him."

Persons entering exhibits may leave them at the gallery, Post road at Mansion drive, any day after 4 p. m. from August 8 through August 12. Artists are asked to present their entries before the opening Friday as it will be extremely difficult for the committee to give them proper attention at that time.

In previous years there has been an active participation from the New Paltz area and many have indicated they will also exhibit this year.

AVOIDING IMPERTINENT QUESTIONS

A reader asks: "Will you suggest a reply to make to those who ask questions about my separation or divorce—such as the reason for it, grounds I expect to claim, what I am going to do about settlement of property, etc.? You may find it hard to believe, but I have had a number of casual neighborhood acquaintances ask me these very personal questions. I find this very annoying but I can't think of a polite reply."

Don't reply, just say "Please let's change the subject. It makes me very unhappy to talk about it."

Knife As Pusher

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband has a habit of holding his fork in the left hand and pushing food onto it with his knife. He does this constantly throughout the meal. I think this looks horrible, and in my opinion bad manners. He says that it is just as correct to use the knife as a pusher as it is to use a piece of bread. I would like to hear from you on this matter.

Answer: I agree with your husband that the knife is more suitable than the bread. But neither knife nor bread should be used to load food onto the fork. The fork may be pushed slightly against the knife which is used to keep a morsel of food from sliding away.

Letters of Introduction

Dear Mrs. Post: I will be going on a business trip to the coast shortly and will be there for several months. I don't know a single person out there but several of my friends have given me the names and addresses of friends or relatives of their's living on the coast and told me to look them up. Would it be proper for me to do this, or might these strangers think me very pushing.

Answer. They should give you letters to their friends to take with you and not expect you, as a total stranger, to call on them. I agree with you that it would seem pushing.

* * *

You can improve the appearance and wording of your letters with the help of Mrs. Post's booklet No. 502, "Etiquette of Letter Writing." Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 25 cents in coin to Dept EP, in care of The Kingston Daily Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Foreign Students Spend Two Weeks At Paltz College

Nine students from France are spending the next two weeks on the campus of the State University Teachers College at New Paltz under the auspices of the Experiment in International Living.

The summer's program for these young people and for 12 other groups coming from five different countries has been arranged by the Experiment. All of the groups spend a month living as members of separate families in various communities. The New Paltz group has just been in Albany. All of the groups then have a two-weeks' visit at a teachers college, a week's independent travel and finally a group visit to a major city such as Washington or New York.

Founded in 1932, the Experiment with international headquarters in Putney, Vt., is a non-profit educational travel organization.

Dr. Donald S. Allen, chairman of the division of natural science at the State University Teachers College at New Paltz, is in charge of the program. He announces that there will be an evening meeting on August 9 at 8 p. m. in the main lounge of the College Union building, to describe the program of the Experiment in International Living. All interested persons are cordially invited to attend. Miss Rose Abernethy of the faculty at New Paltz will assist Dr. Allen in taking charge of the local arrangements.

Families in the vicinity of New Paltz who would like to entertain one of these students at Sunday dinner for August 8 or August 15 should call Dr. Allen's office at the college, New Paltz 2141. It has been the custom to invite a New Paltz student to attend with the visitor from abroad.

Friends Will Hold Chicken Barbecue

The Clintondale Friends Meeting will hold a chicken barbecue at the Clintondale Grange Hall Thursday, August 26, with servings at 6 p. m. and 7:15 p. m.

The committee in charge consists of William Coy, Jr., Ralph Van Sickler, John Minard, William Minard, Jr., Myron Ronk, Harold Sutton and Melvin Hard. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Meeting.

Fair at Syracuse To Present Style Shows in September

State Fair time's coming—and with it a sparkling array of the liveliest in fall fashions, designed to flatter madam's taste, figure and pocketbook.

Long one of the most popular features of a jam-packed women's program, the State Fair style shows will make return appearances each day at the State Fairgrounds, Syracuse, September 4 through 11, in the auditorium of the Harriet May Mills Memorial Building, headquarters of women's activities.

Leading the style parade on opening day, with repeat performances on Sunday, September 5 and Saturday, September 11, are two shows staged in cooperation with the National Cotton Council of America.

The first, called Live in Cotton, features a high-style, year-round cotton wardrobe designed by leading names in the American fashion field. The second, a Cinderella Sasks revue, shows the amazing fashion uses for colorful cotton feed, flour and fertilizer bags.

From 1 to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday, four Syracuse stores will present preview showings of their fall selections.

Dish Washing Tip

Speed dish washing by putting sudsy dishes into drain and pouring hot water over them. This is not only the quickest but the most sanitary method of rinsing dishes. And, since hot water evaporates rapidly, the dishes will soon be ready to go into the closet.

Choose unsalted crackers to serve with Roquefort, Gorgonzola or smoked cheese.

Mrs. Powers Back From Convention

Mrs. William E. Powers, Sr., 192 Albany avenue, has returned from Columbus, O., where as delegate she attended a 15-day session of the 22nd International Convention of the Ladies' Auxiliary to The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Headquarters for the convention was the Deshler-Hilton Hotel and daily sessions were held in Memorial Hall.

The constitution and general rules of the grand lodge and the subordinate lodges were rewritten to include many important changes and the ritualistic work was completely revised to comply with present day methods.

Drill teams, each consisting of 24 auxiliary members, were present from St. Louis, Mo., Roanoke, Va., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, Enderlin, N. D., Seattle, Wash., Kansas City, Mo., Marion, O., and Buffalo. They assisted in the exemplification of all forms of the newly adopted ritualistic work and the seating of the officers.

Plans were discussed and accepted for an extensive membership campaign to increase the present ninety thousand membership to one hundred ten thousand during the next 4 years.

Over a thousand delegates attended this convention representing subordinate lodges in the United States, Canada and Hawaii.

Picketing End Ordered

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 5 (AP)—A temporary injunction issued yesterday by State Supreme Court has ordered an AFL bartenders union to cease picketing at the Batavia Downs harness track.

Miss Tegart Given Surprise Shower

A surpise variety shower was held recently at the home of Mrs. Frederick Peters, 94 First avenue, for Miss Carol Tegart in honor of her approaching marriage to Donald C. Snyder. Decorations were in rose and blue. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Frederick Peters and Mrs. Fred Wolf.

Attending were the Mmes. Albert Tegart, Walter Snyder, Ralph Nickerson, Louis Buddenhagen, William Buddenhagen, Herman Luedtke, William Price, Carl Beatty, George Schmid, Carl Nickerson, Norman Luedtke, William Lyke, George Studt and Florence Berry, also the Misses Elizabeth Petri, Joan Peters, Janet Nickerson, Ruth Nickerson, Doris Nickerson, Gladys Nickerson, Elizabeth Lyke and Christine Studt.

Rug Washing

Before sudsing looped, pile or hooked rugs, baste a six-inch strip of muslin along one edge. Then, when you hang the rug to dry, you can fold the muslin strip over the line and fasten it with pins so that there will be no grooves made in the rug itself.

Amount of Sweetness

Adding a quarter cup of confectioners' sugar to a cup of cream that is to be whipped, gives the amount of sweetness that is generally liked. And adding a dash of salt will point up the sweetness.

Egg Salad

Egg salad may be packed into small containers, chilled and then unmolded on salad greens at serving time. Garnish with extra mayonnaise and capers, paprika or minced parsley.

Making Pie Dough

Use all-purpose or pastry flour when you are making pie dough. You'll find that all lard or hydrogenated fat makes a more tender pastry than all butter or margarine; but part lard or hydrogenated fat and part butter or margarine may be used for tender pastry, too.

Sunday Breakfast

Creamed drief beef makes a delightful Sunday breakfast when it is served with hot popovers. Use a quarterpound of dried beef to one to two cups of white sauce that is on the thin side.

DiCapua Fans 16, Gives 1 Hit as Highland Wins LL Game, 6-0

Nationals to Play Saugerties Today

Dom DiCapua showed up at the 156th Field Artillery Little League field with both his bat and trusty throwing arm Wednesday night and both of these assets were a little too much for the Kingston American Leaguers. Ordinarily, DiCapua rests solely on his pitching arm.

As it turned out, DiCapua fired a sizzling one-hitter for his Highland teammates in the Little League district game and helped his own cause with a homer and double.

All of this amounted to a comfortable 6 to 0 victory for Highland over the AL team and sent the Ulster county team into the finals on Friday night.

Sets Strikeout Mark

DiCapua registered an impressive total of 16 strikeouts last night and it set a new K record for local tournament competition.

His bid for entry into the Hall of Fame was nullified by Charlie Boice who rapped him for a single in the fifth inning. But outside of that blow, DiCapua had the American Leaguers eating out of his hand.

As a result of last night's game, Highland will meet the winner of tonight's Kingston National Leaguers vs. Saugerties semi-final district clash. The finals are scheduled for Friday night and the winner of this game will meet the Hudson Valley League All Stars of Dutchess county who rode into the finals last night by whipping the Poughkeepsie American Leaguers, 22 to 9. The Hudson Valley Stars are composed of players from Hyde Park, Staatsburg, Rhinebeck, Rhinecliff, Tivoli and Red Hook. The game deciding the winner of the District 4 crown will be played Saturday at 2 p. m. at the 156th LL Stadium.

Highland didn't waste much time in giving Dom DiCapua the only run he needed. After John Brenni walked to open Highland's first inning, Harold Barean fanned and after Hobart Armstrong uncorked a wild heave into center field, Brenni scored.

Highland made it 2-0 in the second when DiCapua doubled and came in on an error.

After two Highland batters were retired in the third, Bill Phillips hoisted a fly to Joe Clark who dropped it for an error. DiCapua displayed his batting powress again as he slammed a long homer into Kiersted avenue to make it 4-0.

The invading Southern Ulster team continued with a single run in the fourth when George Schreiber singled went to second on a passed ball and scored on John Brenni's double. Highland made it 6-0 in the fifth when Phillips was hit by a pitched ball, advanced on a wild pitch and tallied on Schreiber's second hit of the night.

Errors Hurt Locals

Although completely silenced by Dom DiCapua's scintillating hurling, the American Leaguers didn't help their own cause too much with a couple of costly boots.

Charlie Boice, Hobie Armstrong and Mike Carpino divided the pitching chores for the losers and the three gave up a combined total of five hits.

Newport Dream Captures 1954 Hambletonian Race

Goshen, Aug. 5 (AP)—Newport Dream has caused Del Cameron a lot of lost sleep in recent months, but the determined little harness racing driver must have laid his head on the pillow with a broad smile last night.

For with all his aches, pains, bandages and liniments, Newport Dream tossed away the crutches and went out to defeat 15 rivals in the $106,830 Hambletonian yesterday.

Still Is Lame

Newport Dream has been, and still is lame, with a mystery ailment in the left foreleg, swollen knees on both forelegs, and a swelling in the right hock.

But the 2-year-old champion of 1953 chilled the opposition in two consecutive heats, whirling around Good Time Park's triangular mile in 2:02 4/5 both times to grab off the top prize of $57,581.

A month ago Cameron said it was 50-50 whether he could get the colt ready for the Hambletonian. At winter quarters in Pinehurst, N. C., Newport Dream began showing lameness in the left foreleg during mid-March. Three veterinarians were called in, nobody could determine whether it was centered in the ankle or shoulder.

Finally they blocked a nerve to try and pinpoint the spot, but that worsened things—an infection developed.

Never Gave Up

Cameron, who trains for owner Octave Blake, master of the Newport Stock Farm, South Plainfield, N. J., never gave up.

Newport Dream defeated Princess Rodney, Walnut Hall stud, Donerail, Ky., by three lengths in the first heat yesterday. Stanley Cooper's Vicki Hanover, Port Jervis, N. Y., was third. The favored Stenographer, owned by Max Hempt, Camp Hill, Penn., finished sixth.

In the deciding dash an hour later, it was evident Newport Dream was lame walking to the post. But he wouldn't quit. He took the lead with about three-eights of a mile remaining, and held on desperately to beat C. M. Provost's Harlan, Pittsburgh, by a head as the crowd roared. Necks behind the first pair in a blanket photo finish were Princess Rodney and Stenographer.

Winners to Play In Legion Finals At Oneonta

Staten Island built up a 7 to 0 lead in the first five and a half innings of its game Wednesday afternoon at Dietz Stadium and the lead withstood a game but vain comeback by Fort Orange of Albany in the Section A-B semi-final game of the American Legion tournament.

On the strength of its early edge, the Huttner - Pasqualini Post of Staten Island weathered the storm and won by 7 to 4. Staten Island will play for the tournament title at Oneonta Saturday against the Henry P. Smith Post of Rome.

After a scoreless first inning, Staten Island jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the second and added four more in the fifth.

The fifth inning uprising was put together by three perfect bunts and a long triple by Joe Morro, the right fielder.

Leading 7-0, Staten Island suddenly found its big edge dwindle as Fort Orange staged a late rally. The upstaters scored single runs in the fifth and sixth and closed the game up with a pair of markers in the seventh but to no avail.

Fielding gems of the game included Brian Barr's sensational catch in the seventh and Ray Donnelly's pick off of two Staten Island runners.

Bob Magnani, shortstop for Staten Island, emerged as the batting star of the game with three hits in four trips. Pete Bazanos and Joe Morro each picked up a brace of hits. Sal Rinella and Joe Haley led Fort Orange with two hits apiece.

George Platoni went the distance for Staten Island and gave up six hits, struck out five and walked three. Donnelly allowed 10 hits, fanned four and issued the same number of walks.

Yesterday's Stars

(By The Associated Press)

Pitching — Robin Roberts, Philadelphia Phillies, won his 16th game as he held Milwaukee to five hits while striking out nine in a 2-1 triumph.

Batting — Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn Dodgers, hit a two-run homer with one out in the ninth to give the Dodgers an 8-7 victory over St. Louis.

A's Prexy Sees Club Moving Out

Philadelphia, Aug. 5 (AP)—Speaking in terms of cold cash, says Vice President Earle Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics, "there isn't a chance" of keeping the ball club in Philadelphia."

That was the most forthright statement made yet on the plight of the American League club that is dying from a lack of money, fans, and a winning record.

Earle made the statement yesterday in confirming that a 4½ million dollar offer has been made for the A's by a Kansas City syndicate headed by Arnold Johnson of Chicago.

The statement was the latest in a series of exchanges between Earle and his older brother, Roy, the team's executive vice president. Roy has been one of those behind the movement to keep the A's in Philadelphia and has said he has high hopes of raising enough money to buy out his brother and their father, Connie Mack.

"Roy talks big," said Earle, "but we don't have a dime."

THE SCOREBOARD

(By The Associated Press)

Robin Roberts is about ready to knock on that 20-game door again. If he gets inside, he will be the first to do it five seasons in a row since Carl Hubbell was the meal ticket of the New York Giants.

The Philadelphia strong boy has been coasting along most of the year on the fringe of the spotlight, yielding the center of the stage to the exciting pennant races. But he's been winning just the same.

When he handcuffed Milwaukee on five hits last night for a 2-1 triumph, he ran his victory total to 16 against nine losses. Two seasons ago when he won an amazing 28, exactly a dozen of the victories came after Aug. 4.

Not up to '53 Pace

Roberts isn't quite up to his pace of last year when he won his 19th game on Aug. 4. But the righthander still remembers with dread the rough going he encountered once he reached 20 in 1953. He ran his record to 20-8 on Aug. 12, but staggered through the last seven weeks of the season with only three more victories.

Hubbell won more than 20 each year from 1933 through 1937.

Roberts shares honors with Johnny Antonelli of the Giants as the winningest pitcher in the majors this season. He and Harvey Haddix of St. Louis lead in strikeouts with 130 each and his amazing total of only 30 bases on balls in 228 innings is by far the best in the National League.

Roberts struck out nine and walked one in beating the Braves last night. Bob Morgan's bases-empty homer in the third gave the control artist the run he needed to win after both sides had scored in the first.

Phils Take Fourth

The victory moved the Phils into fourth place, half a game ahead of the St. Louis Cardinals who bowed 8-7 to Brooklyn. The Giants shaded Chicago 4-3 in 11 innings and Pittsburgh beat Cincinnati 4-3. The Dodgers, Giants and Pirates all won in their last time at bat.

Cleveland evened its current series with the New York Yankees with a 5-2 triumph. Chicago edged Boston 6-5 in 10 innings. Detroit defeated Washington 6-2 and Philadelphia and Baltimore swapped last place as the Athletics whipped the Orioles 6-4.

Cleveland moved 2½ games ahead of the Yankees in the American League. New York stayed five games in front of Brooklyn in the National.

The Giants beat Chicago on an 11th inning single by Hank Thompson that brought in Wes Westrum from second base after two were out.

In Brooklyn the Cardinals grabbed a 7-6 lead with three runs in the ninth only to have the Dodgers pull it out on Jackie Robinson's homer with Junior Gilliam on base in the last of the ninth.

Pittsburgh furnished another dramatic finish. With two out and one aboard in the last of the ninth Gerry Lynch smashed a Frank Smith pitch into the seats for the winning margin.

Tribe Beats Reynolds

The Cleveland Indians turned on Allie Reynolds, one of their former tribesmen, and handed the veteran his third defeat of the season. Bobby Avila's three-run homer in the third inning gave Bob Lemon the cushion he needed for his 14th victory. When Lemon tired after seven innings, Mike Garcia mopped up.

Mount Carmel, Pa.—Johnny Saxton, 156, Brooklyn, drew with Johnny Lombardo, 152, Mount Carmel, Pa., 10.

Dairymen Register Second Straight Win

City League

	W	L
Jones Dairy	2	0
Nadler Motors	1	0
Doblers	1	1
Panthers	0	1
Olive Merchants	0	2

Bruce Bechtold and Red Hinkley combined their pitching efforts to jointly enter the City League Hall of Fame Wednesday night when they co-authored a 9 to 0 no-hitter over the Olive Merchants for Jones Dairy.

Bechtold went the first four innings and blanked the Merchants as he fanned eight and didn't walk a man. Hinkley came on to protect the no-hit accomplishment through the last two innings of the game.

Two Innings Decide

After two scoreless frames, the Dairymen exploded for five runs in the third and added four more in the fifth to complete the rout.

Harry Personeus and DuBois divided the pitching chores for Merchants and they gave up a combined total of eight hits. Five Olive errors didn't help their cause to any degree as the Dairymen were limited to five earned runs.

Nippy Jones led the attack for Jones Dairy with two hits in four trips. Red Gorsline had a double and Tommy Carlino a triple as the only extra-base clouts.

Revised Schedule

Secretary Jim Freligh today listed a revised schedule for next week's play:

Carter Out After 3rd Ring Title

Chicago, Aug. 5 (AP)—Jimmy Carter, fresh from a unanimous decision over Glen Flanagan, figures he's ready to become the first fighter to win the world lightweight championship for the third time.

The durable, 30-year-old New Yorker is scheduled to meet champion Paddy De Marco at San Francisco Sept. 22.

"This fight with Flanagan," said Carter after his convincing but unsensational victory before national TV cameras at Chicago Stadium last night, "should help me against De Marco."

"For one thing, I had to go a full 10 rounds tonight and I needed that. Then, Flanagan boxes a lot like De Marco but he's much more clever than De Marco."

Carter complained that Flanagan was "hard to hit."

But Flanagan, a product of St. Paul, Minn., felt enough of Carter's blows to proclaim:

Flanagan Praises Foe

"He's the next lightweight champion of the world."

The fight, for the most part, resembled a huge wagonwheel, with Flanagan dancing in a circle and jabbing in and Carter throwing his punches out from the hub. Occasionally Carter broke the circle pattern to drive Flanagan back with hard rights and lefts to the body.

Referee Frank Sikora scored the fight 98-91 for Carter. Judge William O'Connell made it 100-93, and Judge Howard Walsh 99-90.

Carter weighed 138 and Flanagan 135½.

ALL STARS SELECTED

Rec League Names 20 For Dodger Rookie Test

The Recreation League today named a 20-player roster for the all-star team that meets the Brooklyn Dodger Rookies Monday night at Dietz Stadium.

Five pitchers named by the league officials and managers include the cream of the local crop. Listed are three right handers — Jack Houghtaling, Bruce Bechtold and Joe Pino and a couple of southpaws, Frank Reis and Bob Maines.

Bob Shelightner and Jim Woods are the catchers.

Two players were selected for each infield position as follows:

First base—Bob Fay, John Godwin.

Second base — John Culjak, John Hoban.

Third base — Don Ferraro, Frank Turck.

Shortstop—Palmer Brodhead, Paul Giannuzzi.

Chosen for the outfield were Bill Haber, Jim Jackson, Joe Modica, Bob Bondar and Frank Secreto.

Rookies Powerful

The Dodger Rookies will feature two of the most sought after metropolitan high school players of the 1954 season, Jack Liddy and Mike Weltman.

Liddy has signed a contract with the Phillies and Weltman is slated to join the Pittsburgh Pirates next spring.

John Howard fired 217-188-215 for 620 to lead the Ferraro Mixed League Wednesday night at the Bowlodrome.

Saugerties LL Teams See Giants Win Sixth

Members of the Saugerties Little League were in attendance at the Polo Grounds in New York Wednesday when the Giants scored their sixth straight win, a 4 to 3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

The trip was made possible with league funds and contributions from various Saugerties merchants.

The Little Leaguers made the trip by bus.

Bob Fitzsimmons came from Australia to win all three of his fight titles in the U. S.—middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight.

SPORTS
By Charles J. Tiano
Sports Editor

Lynn Brooks, the 19-year-old winner of the sixth annual Freeman hole-in-one tournament, is studying engineering at Norwich University. And everyone who saw him zero the specially constructed hole at Woodstock knows the young man will be an expert in the world of angles, logarithms, trajectories, etc.

Young Brooks did not play varsity golf because Norwich doesn't have a team. But he was able to keep busy in informal matches with college mates.

His all-time record of 18½ inches will stand plenty of beating. Jim Dwyer's previous mark of 24½ inches held up for five years. We thought Lynn's performance on his four shots was the best all-round trick turned in by any winner to date.

• Birdies and Bogies:

It now develops that the Burns family spells its name Byrnes. Harry, the sharpshooting husband of the female hole-in-one winner, confided to Connie Heiselman that he wasn't too sure it was his wife whose name was sprawled across the top of Monday's sport page. Perfect weather conditions attracted a large turnout and a flock of spectators through the four-hour marathon. Judge Harry E. Schirick, Doc Forst and Twaalfskill's pro, Alex Gerlak, came up to pay their respects. Bob Umpleby wore "that" sport-shirt but had little luck off the tee. Charlie Vogel wanted to know if somebody was moving the green while Van Haver was taking his four shots. Lorenz Stowell, the Woodstock shopkeeper, was first off the tee. The last shots were fired by Mrs. Edith Hekcroth of the home club.

• Pitch and Putt:

Charlotte Lapine, the 1953 winner, didn't score a repeat but was the only woman to place two shots on the green. Allen Waterous maintained his rating as one of the best acers, hitting shots of 4 feet 3 and 8 feet 4. Spectators got a real charge out of Buzzy Costello, who hit the green once and was strong on three others. Donald Van Aken was over the green with four tries. Harold Van Aken had a 10 footer. The big guy of the Van Aken golfing dynasty—Bill—had to play second fiddle to the others. George Svirsky hit one 2 feet 11 inches from the cup and Lowell Brooks, twin brother of the new champion, was 9 feet 5. Rodney Osterhoudt led the Old Guard with one ball on the green, but Carl Preston, the only southpaw in the tournament, didn't have much luck, going 0 for 4.

• The Nineteenth Hole:

James A. Dwyer, who held the tourney record until this year, got off a respectable effort of 9 feet 5. Walter Seaton, the man with the atomic swing, went "4 for 4", including efforts of 8 feet and 8 feet 10 inches. Dick Davenport, accompanied by his pretty bride, also had a "4 for 4" day, with a best of 7 feet 10 inches. Because of a conflict with the Catskill Mountain League several of the "name" players in the county had to miss out. Joe Blackwell Jr. of Ellenville, whose father won it two years ago, represented Shawangunk. Ray Caddy, who invariably comes up with one good effort, hit 8 feet 10½ incres.

SARTORIAL NOTE: John Matthews of Twaalfskill was easily the best dressed man on the tee. Impeccably attired in Sunday clothes, Long John matched his sartorial splendor with four excellent shots to the green. Many thanks to all the fine folks who made the trip up from Kingston and helped make the sixth annual tournament a big success.

Bout Ends in Draw

Mount Carmel, Pa., Aug. 5 (AP)—Brooklyn's Johnny Saxton and Johnny Lombardo fought to a draw here last night in 10 action-packed rounds that had the spectators standing to applaud several times. Neither Saxton nor his "local boy" opponent was knocked down during the fight which in the closing rounds saw the welterweights take on added stamina and battle toe-to-toe. Saxton, who is slated to meet welter champ Kid Gavilan in Philadelphia Sept. 1, weighed 156, his opponent 152.

Davis Cup Their Aim

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—Eight of the most promising young tennis players in the country today were placed under the guiding wing of Jack Kramer with one thought in mind—to win back the Davis Cup from Australia. The United States Lawn Tennis Association announced the plan—the Junior Davis Cup training program—and the idea is to beat the Aussies at their own game. They begin training youngsters early. The lads range from 13 to 17 and will make the entire eastern swing under the watchful eyes of Kramer, one of the country's greatest players. Kramer is donating his time and Holiday magazine is underwriting the expenses of the youngsters.

Larsen Unveils Shot

South Orange, N. J., Aug 5 (AP)—A "new" Art Larsen takes on unseeded J. Allen Morris today in a third-round match of the Eastern Grass Courts tennis tournament. Larsen, highest ranked player left in the matches since national champion Tony Trabert withdrew because of a blistered racquet hand, unveiled a new backhand shot and a brand net set of court manners yesterday in downing Chauncey D. Steele, Jr., of Cambridge, Mass., 6-4, 6-2. He joked with the crowd and it cheered him when he got off a good shot.

changes its basic attitude. Officials said subsequently Dulles' statement could be taken to apply specifically to the Soviet proposal for a European security conference. Presumably it applies as well to the new Soviet call for a Big Four meeting.

Launching Is Set Friday for LCU

Another steel landing craft built by Island Dock, Inc., will be launched at 8 a. m., Friday, it was announced today.

Designated as LCU 1468, the craft is the fourth of its type to be launched at the local shipyard, which has contracted to build 17 vessels for the U. S. Navy.

Of all steel construction the LCU 1468 is designed to carry tanks and other equipment for beach landings. Self-propelled, it will carry a crew of 14. It will be the 29th steel-hulled vessel launched at the shipyard in three years.

Launched during the three years were three 120-foot steel coal barges, a 65-foot ferryboat, 14 steel deck 110-foot barges for the U. S. Army, seven 120-foot steel-hulled deck barges for the army and three 120-foot steel-hulled landing craft for the navy.

The LCU 1468 will be launched without ceremony.

Burglary Suspect Shoots Three Cops Near Lake Placid

Lake Placid, Aug. 5 (AP)—A burglary suspect shot and wounded three policemen, one critically, today and fled from a summer camp into the woods at the edge of this Adirondack resort.

The man was believed armed with a .22 caliber rifle and a pistol.

About 300 police and volunteers, aided by bloodhounds, searched the thick woods, and state police issued a 13-state alarm. All area roads were blocked off.

Police found tracks in the woods, near Riki Hill on Old Military Road, that they said might be the tracks of the fugitive.

In Wake of Theft

The shooting came in the wake of a $100,000 jewel theft Monday at the exclusive Lake Placid Club, but police said they did not think the man was connected with that theft.

Patrolman J. Bernard Fell, whom the man seized and used as a shield in his escape, was wounded critically by two bullets in the abdomen.

Also hospitalized were Patrolman Richard Pekley, shot in the right leg and chest, and Patrolman Dominick Valenze, shot once in the arm and twice in the chest. Valenze was considered in serious condition. The hospital said Pekley's condition was satisfactory.

Police said the fugitive was wanted for burglary. Several camps have been burglarized recently, it was said.

Serious Drouth

the driest states—Texas, Colorado, New Mexico, Kansas and Oklahoma.

But scattered rains like these have fallen before in the past four years, and always the moisture had faded in a few days or weeks.

South Also Hit

Even in the south, where the drouth isn't as old and tough as in the plains states, the rains of the past week weren't enough. For example, Kentucky received an average of 1.24 inches, the most in any week since April. The rain helped tobacco, but most other crops were too far gone to be saved.

Timely rains also were reported in Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota. But in these states, too, the word was the same: More rain needed, and even that wouldn't revive some fields.

Arrested for Arson

Poughkeepsie, Aug. 5 (AP)—A 76-year-old Dobbs Ferry man was arrested yesterday on a second degree arson charge in connection with a fire which destroyed his summer cottage. The man, Joseph Loeschner, of 55 Southfield Road, Dobbs Ferry, was held in the Dutchess county jail in lieu of $1,500 bail. His summer cottage, a 5-room bungalow, was located at the town of Milan in northern Dutchess county. It burned April 20. State police said Loeschner was treated for multiple burns at a Dobbs Ferry Hospital after the fire, and that he claimed the cottage accidentally caught fire while he was burning leaves.

ILA Would Get Inland Plants; To Visit Kingston

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—The independent International Longshoremen's Assn. is reaching out from the waterfront in an effort to organize varied inland industries, the World-Telegram & Sun reported today.

It said the union is attempting to organize brush and broom makers, electrical workers and employes of a cosmetics firm in Middletown, N. Y.

ILA activity among silverware workers in Port Jervis has shut down a firm there and made more than 100 workers idle, the newspaper said.

It declared the union also was making inroads at Massena; that its organizers intended to go to Kingston soon; and that attempts will be made to organize several milk processing plants in New York state.

'Were Invited'

William V. Bradley, ILA president, was quoted as saying:

"Interested people in Middletown and Port Jervis who wanted a union looked around and decided we were the kind of a union they'd like to join. We were invited up."

Bradley did not indicate who extended the invitations. He said the matter was being handled by the ILA's chief organizer, Thomas (Teddy) Gleason, who has been ill and who was unavailable for comment.

Bradley said the organization efforts were not intended as retaliation against the American Federation of Labor.

The AFL ousted the ILA from its ranks last year after the New York State Crime Commission exposed corrupt practices by some of the dock union members.

Schooling and Children

In 1940, U. S. women with less than 5 year's schooling who were 45 to 49 years old had an average of 4.33 children, indicating they were almost doubling themselves in the population while college graduates had only 1.23 children, providing little more than half their numbers in the new generation.

Woodstock Has Headline Furore

Whether a news stand owner's refusal to handle a publication constitutes a threat to freedom of the press is currently being debated in Woodstock.

The Woodstock News Shop refused to display on its stands the July 10 issue of The Wasp, a little four-page, 9 x 12 inch sheet which according to its masthead is handset and hand printed by the editors, Holley Cantine and Dachine Rainer. The issue was headed, "Tourists, Go Home!"

Paul Fenster, one of the News Shop's proprietors, said today he had handled The Wasp last year, and allowed its first issue this year to be placed in the rack.

"When I noticed the headline," Fenster said, he took the papers down. "I figured I don't have to insult my customers."

Call Abridgment

A subsequent issue of The Wasp contended such refusal was an abridgment of "freedom of the press."

Woodstock's two other weeklies commented editorially on the incident.

The Woodstock Press, edited by David A. and Rita C. Bird, took the stand in its July 22 issue that The Wasp's claim "borders on the tenuous, because the News Shop operates under no franchise and anybody is free to start one or a dozen other News Shop in town without the slightest restriction."

No Insults, They Say

Pointing out that "we are all for freedom of the press," the press said, "But we must realize that others have liberties too. The News Shop, for example, has a right to attract tourists and keep them coming back rather than insulting them."

The Woodstock Townsman, whose masthead lists Sumner F. Hall as publisher, Keithe Hall as managing editor and Tobie Geertsema as editor, commented in its July 28 edition that "We are unalterably and completely opposed to any control which seeks to close the avenues of information." At the same time, the Townsman took the publishers of The Wasp to task for not distributing their paper themselves.

"Pity poor old John Peter Zenger who spent a year in the hoosegow so that we who followed him in the paths of news presentation might fear no more. For the small obstacle of the distribution of words written by such firm believers seems somehow minor in comparison with the tremendous tasks involved in hand-setting and hand-printing," said the Townsman.

One Cup Equals Four

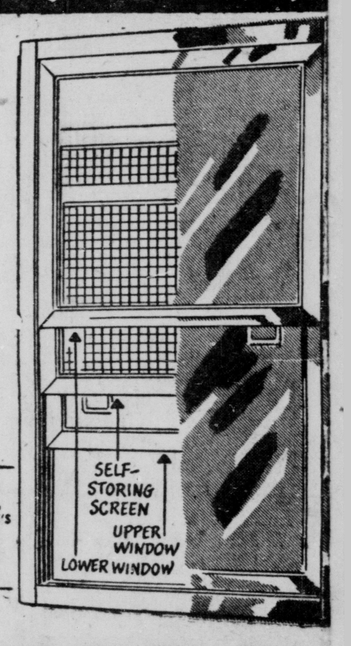

A cup of yellow or white cornmeal usually yields about four cups after cooking. The same measurements apply to rice before and after cooking.
